Scott Greiner wins Non Champs in Duncanville!

What a crazy final game of match play in Duncanville for the Non Champs Singles. Going into the last game Butch Kirby led Darry Weigle by 28 pins and Scott Greiner was 26 behind Darry. Darry and Butch were battling until Darry hurt his hand and opened in the 7th and 8th frames. Meanwhile, Scott was striking away next door. Scott got up in the 10th frame and need two strikes to shut out Butch...he got the first one then left the 4-7-10 and picked up two of them. That meant Butch needed a mark in the 10th. He left the 2 pin and missed it to the left giving Scott the victory. This was Scotts first SASBA event and he won...nice going Scott! Butch finished second and Darry third. John Burkett was fourth and Saturdays leader Bill Fong rounded out the top five.

Thanks to the Cathey family and staff of Red Bird for hosting. The shot was tough and spare making was a must.

At Duncanville SASBA added $1823.

Our next tournament is at Hog Pin Bowl in Lawton, OK for a regular singles. This was changed from Shawnee and moved up a week. A big thank you to Tony Faustner for taking this tournament at Hog Pin on short notice! Two weeks later we are at Astro Supoer Bowl in San Antonio for a 60/50/ Guest Trio.
