Jesse Jackson and Pat Henderson Win Annual 70/60 Doubles at Cowtown!

Jesse Jackson and Pat Henderson led the qualifying and led the first 9 games of the Baker-style finals before dropping to 3rd place behind Dave Dupont/Phil Bailey and Sam Magill/Shawn Rasti. They rebounded in Game 10 to get a slight lead, then trailed Dave and Phil by only one pin entering the title match. An early split by Dave and an eight-bagger by Jesse and Pat ended the suspense 252-230. Phil Prieto and Paul McCordic got 3rd place, Sam and Shawn bowled steady to get 4th and John Denton and Doug Barron rounded out the top five.

Thanks to Jamie Brooks, Steve Wunderlich and crew for being great hosts. The pattern held up well and the snack bar is better than ever!

This tournament is so much fun! The legends of SASBA are in action and it's fun to watch how competitive and how good they still are. We had five bowlers from Tennessee and Ed Roberts and Harry Mickelson traveled all the way from Boston, MA and Yakima, WA...just to bowl this event. We are going to make a concerted effort to get 50 entries next year and set a new world record for the number of 70 yr. old bowling in a scratch tournament...so, start lining up your partners now.

300's were bowled by Ron Leverich and Sam Magill.

On October 18-19, we'll have the Member Ladies JDRF Doubles at Plano Super Bowl. There will be a kids Pro-Am on Friday, silent auction and huge raffle to raise money for this great cause!

October 25-26 is our Annual Championship at Cityview Lanes in Fort Worth, TX. This year we are featuring a new format. On Saturday's 8 games of qualifying, all bowlers will bowl against two other bowlers each game. You'll get two different opponents on your pair each game for a total of 16 matches with bonus pins for winning. The top half of the field will cash and make the match play finals on Sunday. The other half will bowl a free sweeper Sunday with $2000 added. If you've bowled one SASBA tournament since Nov 1, 2013, you're eligible to bowl the Annual Championship. Entry Fee is $230.

Please, No Friday Entries!

Jim's Notes

Ronnie Diamond and Joe Bess whacked'em! Jamie's still got it and was not the oldest one there. Charlie Pickett bowled great! The Beav left the lily! Gordon said the new computer scoring at Cowtown automatically sends him a text message anytime someone leaves the lily!

Jim's Tips: Over the next four newsletters, I'm going to offer my version of Dr. Dean's "Competition Cycle" as something you mat want to incorporate into your mental game. Step 1: Preparation-Decide how you're going to play the shot (release, speed, ball etc.), where you're going to stand, what you're going to look at...in the pit before you walk on the approach. There's no time or room for any of this once on the approach, so make up your mind in the pit...before you walk up there.
