Out on The Twig

Hayes, Inocencio, Perez, Shirley Win Mixed Foursome at Plano!

The team of Doug Hayes, Danny Inocencio, Rachel Perez and Mike Shirley proved once again why you aren't out of it just because you didn't bowl great on Saturday. They started Sunday morning in 20th place, but got matched up better and gradually rose in the standings...qualifying 2nd. In the first match of the Baker-style stairstep finals, the team of Paul Pender, Marshal Kulow, Kyoko McDonald and Jimmy McMartin defeated Gary Dickinson, Doug Barron, Ashley Hansen and Mike Donahue 221-187. They lost the next match 234-208 to Rick Minier, Joe Lecroy, Kerry Moreland and C. J. Thomas. In the semi-final, Hayes and crew squeaked by 216-

211 before facing qualifying leaders Bob McGregor, Jim Stephens, Stefanie Johnson and Chris Johnson. The champs strung some strikes while Magoo and crew struggled with carry and they emerged with the title 260-211. It was Doug's 13th SASBA title and Danny's 1st.

This is one of our favorite tournaments of the year. 192 of the best bowlers in the country and the Swiss format make for an exciting weekend. Every year, it fills with a waiting list. Can't wait until next year.

Thanks to Jamie Brooks, Scott Craddock, C.J. Johnson and crew for being great hosts. Plano Super Bowl is a showcase center that is always fun to go to.

300s were shot by Paul McCordic, Inocencio, Bill Ferguson, Rachel, Geoffrey Young, Heather Whitney, Ted Pritts, Omar Arnett and Greg Walters Jr had back-to-back 300s.

After DelMar next week, we're back at Cowtown the week before Thanksgiving for a 60/50/guest Trio. Only one spot left as of today. The first weekend in December, we have a member/guest doubles at All Star Lanes in Shreveport, LA sponsored by the Horseshoe Casino and Hotel. They have added $2500 into our prize fund.

Jim's Notes

There were 5 former Alberta Crowe "Star of Tomorrow" winners in the building at the same time. Susie Reichley -69, Kathy Kirst King -77, Lynda Norry Barnes -88, Anita Manns Arnett -02 and Amanda Bourgoyne Vermilyea - 04. What are the odds on that? A picture can be viewed on our website or on the SASBA Facebook page.

Jim's Tips: My version of Dr. Dean's Competition Cycle - Step 4: In Steps 1,2,3a,3b, you've prepared for, executed, reacted to and analyzed the shot. What could possibly be next? Clearing...that's what. Before you start over with Step 1 for the next shot, it's important to take a moment to think about something UNRELATED to the current competition. Take a deep breath, exhale, focus for a second or two on the wallpaper, the carpet design, cute baby...it can be anything EXCEPT your game. This will keep tension from building too fast, help relax your swing, and give you a rhythm to help you repeat shots better.
