Summers, Busscher, Traylor Win Trio in San Antonio!

In the first 67/50/ Guest Trio tourney in SASBA history, Randy Summers, Mark Busscher and Eric Traylor qualified 2nd and waited to bowl the semi-final match. In the first Baker-style match of the stairstep finals, Gene Rivers, Larry Kassner and Chris Watson defeated Jerry Beavers, Robert Lawrence, and Adam Martinez 226-202. They then put down Roger West, Joe Vito and Matt Cabanski 223-213 before falling to Randy and crew 225-189. In the title match, Eric had to strike out to force (Dave Dupont, Paul Houston) Joe Brock to strike out for the win. Eric got the first two and Joe struck in the 10th. In the 11th, needing a strike for the win, Joe threw a great shot, but hung a solid 7 and lost 203-194. It was Randy's 6th SASBA title and Mark's 3rd.

Thanks to Bob Bruce for hosting. The food at the snack bar is great and bowling on real wood is still different than bowling on synthetics.

We had 26 teams in San Antonio and 3 first time members. It was a strong field and almost everyone had a good time.

Cordell Wilder had the only 300.

After the 70/60 Doubles at Cowtown, we have the Member/ Ladies Doubles to benefit JDRF at Plano Super Bowl. The last weekend in October, we have our Annual Championship at Cityview in Fort Worth, TX. There is a new format this year. Qualifying on Saturday will feature each player bowling two matches every game. Half the field will make the cut and return Sunday for two-game matches...single elimination. The other half will bowl a free sweeper with $2000 added.

Jim's Notes

Larry Kassner is still throwing his Vector! There are lots of great bowlers in San Antonio who don't bowl very often, but can still play. Roger and Randy led the 67 & over group. Marshall got a nose-bleed in the Calcutta!

Jim's Tips: All these questions were asked at the tournament: 1. How do I fix over/under? 2. I leave a flat 10, move right and Big 4...why? 3. I never play deeper than 12, why would I play 15? 4. I have 12 different soles...why can't I slide? 5. I stand where I normally stand for a 7 pin and it goes in the gutter...what do I do?

1. Try a softer release 2. You moved the wrong way...lane was dryer, not tighter 3. Because the lane is telling you to play 15 4. Try changing heels...or try a slide sock 5. Stand in a different place or look at a different target...don't just continue what you always do.
