JIM LEE LEADS THE WAY BOTH DAYS FOR 1ST TITLE

Entries were low but scoring was high at Plamor Lanes in Huntsville, AL. Even though we did not have a large turnout, we had numerous new faces.

Some faces were old friends that finally made a tournament, or Huntsville locals or newbies bowling in their first SASBA- Southeast event.

Jim Lee lead qualifying on Saturday and did not look back on Sunday. Tony Churchey had to beat him by 49 pins in the position round of match play. That match saw the only tie 259 to 259. This was Jim's first SASBA title. We hope to see him at many more stops.

Lou Serridge and Mike Meehan had the 8 1/2 hour drive from Jacksonville FL, Both joined SASBA and starting to make future plans for bowling and gambling combo trips with other senior bowlers from the Florida area. Mike made the cut and finished 10th, he's a lefty.

Other new faces include Timothy Lindsey, Scott Huther, Mike Richardson, who all got checks. Richard Hachey, Wayne Mills, Alan Bearden and Ralph Seibe all bowled for the first time in 2008. Thanks for coming out and supporting the SASBA-Southeast.

Bruce Campbell made a great change overnight Sunday, in both delivery and equipment, shooting a massive 1048 on Sunday morning.

Ebonite's' new "Playmaker" was available for purchase, as well as the revamped "ONE". All of these will be available in Nashville. If you need a bag, let us know, we have several available.

We thought we were going to have two injury withdrawals, but it only ended up being one, Louie Manzella. He pulled a calf muscle in game seven and had to quit. Hope you are all the mend, Louie..

Even though scores were high, there was only four honor scores, 299 / 802 by Billy Sales and 290s by Terry Huffman and Jim Lee.

Our next scheduled tournament is July 5-6, 2008 at Tusculum Lanes, Nashville, TN. The host motel will be posted on the website as soon as we are informed of that information. Let's have a big, bang up tournament to celebrate the 4th of July, Nashville style.

PLAMOR LANES / HUNTSVILLE SWEEPER RESULTS

Thirty seven entries were posted in the Friday afternoon Sweeper. A total of $592 was paid out to nine bowlers. 495 and 496 received the last two cash spots. Tony Churchey tied for 1st, 3rd by himself and a three-way tie for 4th. Again, scores in the sweeper were a good predictor for of the weekends' scoring.

INFORMATION FOR NEXT EVENT

The Ebonite tournament and bracket program worked great all weekend in Huntsville. We hope to have all data in the near future.

Yes, our next tournament is a holiday weekend, but where better to spend the 4th but in Nashville. There is a great fireworks display downtown on the river.

Thanks to Ron Ware and his staff at Plamor Lanes. The buffet lunch was great and such a nice bonus, saves the price of a lunch which helps in today's market.

Many new faces, recruit a travel buddy, save $$$$.
