DUFRENE CLAIMS 1ST TITLE WITH THOMPSON

Twenty four doubles sets made an appearance at Rebelanes in Tupelo. Several new faces in both members and guests.

Perry Dufrene and his partner Jack Thompson led qualifying on Saturday. After 14 games of match play they had dropped to 3rd. Doug Hayes and Rudy Kasimakis had moved from the 4th qualifying position to the lead spot for the final game of match play.

Perry and Jack shot a nice 267 the final game of match play to gain 97 pins. Doug and Rudy tied their match thus only picking up 15 bonus pins, which enabled Perry and Jack to move into first place by 7 pins. Congrats on your first title, Perry!

Sandra Dufrene bowled in her first SASBA event with partner Eric Roddy. They qualified for match play in the 5th position and finished in 7th.

John Montgomery thought he was bowling with left handed David Channell but ended up bowling with David's wife Jennifer. They finished in 8th place.

Ben Edwards bowled with Tommy Barish, via some put together work of Vic Culbreath. Tommy only averaged 252 for his 8 games of qualifying. Ben, you did get his number didn't you?

If you need a nice Christmas gift for a fellow bowler, why not consider a nice Ebonite bowling ball or bag. We have plenty in stock and you can't beat the price.

Our next scheduled tournament is Oct 18-19 at Paris Family Center in Paris TN. Close enough to Paris Landing State Park if you would like to cast a line or hit your driver.

Let's have a big turnout for our last two stops of the year, Bowling Green KY and Collierville TN.

Doubles are twice the fun. Good scores and good times were had by everyone in Tupelo.

Thanks to the staff of Rebelanes for the great Southern hospitality.

Congrats to Jennifer Channell on her TN State Queens win last weekend.

We have a very short trip this week to Paris TN. Everyone please mind the speed limit on US 79, especially in any construction areas. Paris Landing State Park Lodge has a great buffet on Saturday nights.

Doug and Delilah
