CHURCHEY AND "CHUCK" BATTLE FOR ANOTHER NOTCH

Twenty seven bowlers ventured to the Land Between the Lakes area of Paris TN.

Not a lot left to report about the Paris tournament if anyone has read the website posts by Gordon Stuntz and DL Moody, thanks for keeping everyone informed.

Yes, we had a ghost bowler amongst the participants, "Chuck Hayes", as reported by the Paris Post-Intelligencer. AKA Doug Hayes. Doug as decided it's "Chuck" who has been finishing his tournaments, hence his 5 seconds in a row.

Doug had a 824 and Richard had a 811 during Saturday's qualifying games. Richard was the only player to finish the full string and post a 300 during Sunday's match play.

The Calcutta $$ were on the low side but there was more fun and laughter during the bidding then any other time this year.

DL Moody, was so excited about making match play....."he left his balls in Paris", Doug and Delilah picked them up, whew they were heavy, and then they were picked up again by Debbie in Clarksville.....did anybody realize how much DL's balls move across the state.

Oh, we can't forget the champion, Tony Churchey, earning title # 6, in the final game of match play. Tony gets another notch on the championship totem.

We sold quite a few balls, but still have a plentiful supply, including the newest release by Ebonite, the "Pin Slasher" and bags as well.

Our next scheduled tournament is Nov 13-14 at Southern Lanes in Bowling Green, KY. Several points of interest to see and enjoy are nearby. Plan on a nice relaxing get-away weekend before the rush of the upcoming Holiday season.

PARIS FAMILY FUN CENTER SWEEPER RESULTS

Twenty nine entries were posted during the Friday sweeper. Earl Bell and Jim Moore bowled in every squad. Four of the seven cashing spots were bowled in the last squad of the day at 4 PM. This was a prelude to how the lanes would score all weekend, started out slow but scores went up as the day progressed.

Recent POST from DL (in case you missed it)

To the Paris Tournament Participants,

I woke up this morning feeling a little MOODY. After driving WEST through the Tennessee HAYES to Paris, I put on my bowling SMOCK, got out my HAMMER and KRUSEd on through the first round. HOWELL I compete against such a GOOD-RICH field of bowlers, I thought? Then an EARLY BELL rang in the PIPES of my mind. No longer did the house look like I was treading through a THRONEBERRY bush but things become MOORE clear.

After pulling a couple STUNTZ I hacked up some FLEMING and HUFFORwarD to change strategy. I realized I needed to PUTTY my thumb hole and put a nice CREASIE in my pants to score in this house.

Tomorrow I hope to roll my BAL-Da WIN after of course going to CHURCHEY, Amen.

With the election coming up, don't forget to VOGT, it is every FRIEDMANN's right.

I've called the front desk to have the manager, Mr. CAMP ring the BELL to wake me up tomorrow so I won't be late.

We should have a tournament in MONTGOMERY but, we can discuss that later. Good-KNIGHT to everyone. See you tomorrow.

Sorry- MIKE and DONNIE, I'll get you next time.

DL

P.S. It's BEN a DELILAHT to see you all this weekend

11thFrame

The "Welcome" mat was certainly extended to all participants in Paris. The center has been wonderfully transformed to a clean and inviting center with a staff to match.

The Pro-Am had a nice turnout and was enjoyed by all who bowled. The local paper came out for pictures and a nice article.

Aces provided great food for all who hit that venue, as did Super 8 with their newly remodeled rooms.

Our sympathy to Richard Smock in the recent death of his brother.

See you all in KENTUCKY.
