RON SOWA WINS 1ST TITLE WITH STELLAR PERFORMANCE

Twenty five bowlers rolled into Southern Lanes in Bowling Green KY for the final stop before the annual championship tournament.

Terry Clayton of Lafayette IN made the finals bowling in his first SASBA tournament. Richard Smock bowled in his 3rd tournament and made the finals again to keep his record at 100%.

Ron Sowa almost lapped the field with his 252 average for the entire weekend.....games of 205..236..248..248..248..259..212..248..258..279.....269..268..268..236..235..268..279..238..268..and 280....whew!!!!

Since Doug did not make the finals, DL decided he would except his token 2nd place. He also posted a fine 238 average for the weekend, too bad Ron Sowa showed up after a summer hiatus.

Dave Lile had a 298 game in Sunday's qualifying and Ron posted an 816.

Our turnout was not as in years' past nor what we were hoping for. We had 2 cancellations from Louisville, 3 from Indiana, 2 from Birmingham and 1 from Nashville. Let's try to recruit our league buddies and bring them out for the SASBA experience.

Local bowlers, Bill Throneberry, Roger Jones, Calvin Sanders and Whitney Russell, thanks for supporting SASBA and Southern Lanes.

Our final tournament of the year is December 13-14 in Collierville TN (Memphis area). This is our annual championship tournament, let's have a good turnout.

INFORMATION FOR NEXT EVENT

As we end our first year of running the Southeast Region of SASBA, we want to extend a big thank you for the support, friendship, and good times that we have experienced during this time frame.

A special thanks for the prayers of support and words of encouragement during Doug's recent surgery.

We hope to have bigger and better turnouts in 2009, but we need your continued support in order to accomplish this task.

See you all in Collierville.

Doug and Delilah
