HAYES BACK FROM DL LIST DEFEATS CHURCHEY

Thirty-four bowlers were present for the first tournament of 2009 held in Southaven, MS at Cotton Bowl.

The shot was not quite the same as Cotton Bowl 2008, but good scores were posted. Gordon Stuntz had a scoring oddity by doubling his score from game 2 Sunday a 148 , to game 3 Sunday a fine 296. Doug tried to match Gordon's feat, by finishing qualifying with a 154 and starting match play with a 300 game.

The Calcutta dollars were a little higher than usual thanks to Richard Ray and Shorty Chambliss, who each had a full stable.

I heard there were numerous Lily sightings but I didn't see it to confirm. Enjoy your elite membership to this very special club.

DL had his usual post on the internet, and finished in his normal spot....one spot below the $$$.

Good to see new faces that haven't been out in awhile, Mike Forbess, Clyde Gehringer, Phil Thompson, Cecil Whitehouse and Jimmy Flatt.

Jimmy Flatt was reminded numerous times that everyone bowls on Sunday morning, so he came back and made his first finals.

Bruce Campbell had his best finish, again bowling light s out on Sunday.

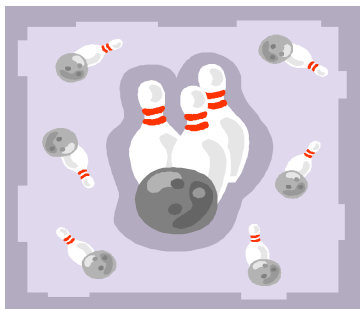

Our next tournament is scheduled for Feb 21-22, 2009 at the Pinnacle in Clarksville TN. Hope to see everyone in the "Queen City".

INFORMATION FOR NEXT EVENT

It was great to be back competing after a two month lay-off. My legs were a little tired on Sunday, but was able to continue on.

Darnel, Justin and entire staff of Cotton Bowl do an excellent job of providing a nice center for our tournament.

We are hopeful that where we have open dates two more tournaments will be added to our schedule. Watch the website and future newsletters for updates.

See everyone in our home city, Clarksville, TN.
