CHURCHEY WINS 7TH IN TENTH OVER "THE 50K MAN"

Thirty, forty, fifty, what a great turnout for the February stop in Clarksville. Yes, we did have a change in venue, but all worked out well. Sorry, Phil, that you missed the piece of information.

Only one honor score all weekend, Roger West had a 300 game, the game before leaving his lily.

Several new and old faces made an appearance. Kevin Westerfield participated after taking a year off. Frank Farris, Wayne Ezell, Jody Haslam, Tim Stancil, Bobby Cardwell, Chico Aguon, Craig Espy, Ron Jenkins, Ricky Jenette and Joe Schings....hope you all come back again.

Greg McMahan fresh off his big Vegas win lead most of the weekend. Only 1 pin separated the two leaders going into the final game of match play. Greg only needed to mark in the tenth to beat Tony, but left a 2-7-8. He only picked up 1 giving Tony his 7th title.

Bracket participation was excellent, thanks for supporting the club. We had the newest ball release from Ebonite, the Magic.....sold several, hope they are scoring for everyone.

DL made the cut even after we provided incorrect information on how many finalists we were taking on Sunday. And yes, he had more prose posted on the website.

Our next tournament is scheduled for Apr 18-19, Dixie Bowl, Meridian MS. We will be in Vegas for the Nationals during March.....see you all in M-I-S-S-I-P-P-I!!!!

INFORMATION FOR NEXT EVENT

The number of participants in Clarksville are the level we need to have at every stop. Great sweeper turnout, over 50 entrants in the tournament and fantastic bracket entry.

East Gate Manager, Amy, did a wonderful job of providing everything we needed.

Local participation was at 25%. Thanks to the Clarksville newbies, and returning participants for making this stop a good one. We hope to see you all again at other SASBA sites.

No stop is planned for March, we will be in Vegas at the Nationals...see everyone in the "Land of Dixie", Meridian MS.
