4 MAN RACE TO THE "WINNERS' CIRCLE"

Thirty, forty,.....and then the bottom fell out with five no shows causing our number to end up at 37. At least we can take 12 to the finals at this level, but would like to pay more spots.....so recruit your buddies.

Tony Churchey came out throwing nothing but strikes during Sundays' qualifying...257, 289, 268 and 225. He held the top spot going into match-play. After winning seven matches George Pappas had worked his way to the top spot.

WOW.....what a final game of match-play!!! The top four spots were at 780, 756, 745 and 742, held by George Pappas, Ben Edwards, Tony Churchey and Avery LeBlanc. Ben and George had a striking marathon going on in their match. Ben came out on top 268 to 249, winning his first title since 2006.

Bill Throneberry's work on his game truly showed all weekend. Congrats on your SS check on Sunday.

Newcomer Delery Matherne made a good showing in the Sweeper and making match-play on Sunday. Our two female participants were not to be outdone. Judy Vogel got Hi Sunday block while Sandra Dufrene went home with bragging rights over hubby Perry.

Bracket participation was not as good as the Clarksville stop, but still much better than the higher priced brackets. We will continue at this price point until statistics prove otherwise.

Our next tournament is scheduled for May 16-17 in Trussville, AL....Birmingham area. This is a new stop for our region, let's try to have a great turnout

INFORMATION FOR NEXT EVENT

Thanks to MA Copeland and his staff for the wonderful Southern Hospitality shown to all participants.

Sweeper and bracket participation remain good, we just need to get the overall entry number up to the 40-45 range.

Sorry, for the last minute cancellation of the Galaxy Lanes / Columbia TN stop. There was a scheduling issue that could not be resolved.....but we will be there in September.
