CREASIE & MARTIN LEAD ALL DAY LONG SUNDAY

Great turnout for the doubles stop at Funquest Lanes in Collierville TN. Even though bowling was a little slow on Saturday due to lane constraints, it is nice to have one squad and be done for the day. Memphis bowlers did a wonderful job of supporting this tournament.

Carl Barsotti and his partner, Donnie Wilson-Smith arrived from their trip to Nationals just in time to bowl.....still may have had some jet lag going on. Gordon made a stop in the Volunteer state after being further South.

Grady worked so hard on building up our entries he wanted to make sure the winnings stayed in town.....he and Tommy led qualifying and were never out of 1st all day long on Sunday.

Father and son duo Jerry and Chris White had a nice showing making match play. Kenny Corley had a 300 game out of the blocks on Saturday.

No injuries or Lilly club members to report.

Our next stop is a Member / Guest tournament in Savannah TN, limited to thirty-two entries. Get a partner and let's fill the house. Remember the entry fee is $190 per bowler.

FUNQUEST LANES SWEEPER RESULTS

Doubles partners Ron Ware and Johnny Atkinson both won their respective sweeper on Friday. First time we can remember this happening.

Thirty four members participated, with only one score over the 500 mark.

Twenty two guests came out on Friday with only one score over the

INFORMATION FOR NEXT EVENT

A huge thank you to Grady Creasie for the tremendous effort he put forth in getting participants in the Funquest stop.

Thanks, to Darnel for her hospitality and efforts for hosting the SASBA.....I love Courtyard / Marriott... I'm going to order a down pillow from their website. Being able to walk to the Mall was a great bonus.

Hope to have a full field at our next stop in Savannah.....see you there.
