8TH TALLY IN WIN COLUMN FOR CHURCHEY

Great turnout for our first stop ever in Dickson, Tennessee at Thunder Alley. Wonderful hospitality, lots of room and a great turnout.....good event all the way around.

Ben Edwards and George Pappas were rolling during Saturday's qualifying with +351 and +334 respectively.

A lily was spotted this weekend, by John Montgomery.....welcome to the club.

We had several honor scores, 300 / 815 by Scott Huther, 298 by Jim Lee, Ron Sowa, 803 and Ben Edwards, 300.

Everyone was able to get a feel for the center and conditions for the upcoming Masters stop to be held at Thunder Alley, in Dickson TN. Check out the listing of bowlers who have qualified to participate by competing in three stops in this region. If you are short, sign up now for Paris and Columbia

Richard Ray bowled in Dickson, thanks for upping the Calcutta dollars for this tournament.

Our next stop is in Columbia, TN at Galaxy Lanes, hosted by Mike Ransom. October will be in Paris TN. Lots of good fishing and golf at nearby Paris Landing State Park. Check out the cabins at the Park; sleep large group, with all the extras.....CHEAP!!!

1ST FOR HAYES & 2ND FOR QUINN IN SAVANNAH DOUBLES

Only four sets short of full capacity at Savannah Bowling Center. Twenty eight sets of Doubles for our first stop in Savannah TN, hosted by David and Jennifer Channell.

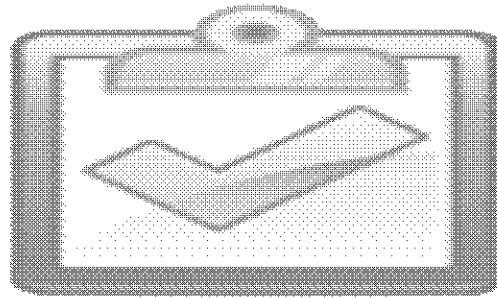

Hayes and Quinn started out match play with a nice Baker 300 game.

Father and son duo of Scott and Brian Huther bowled well all day long Saturday but had their share of trouble in the Baker match play, finally posting a win in the position round.

Carl Barsotti and Donnie Wilson came out rolling in match play, winning their first five matches, but finished with five losses.

Tony Churchey and Aaron Hayes had a real match going amongst themselves.....who could bowl the worst.

Roger West and his rookie partner, Jeff Butler almost pulled off the win, but Hayes and Quinn held them off. This was Doug's first non-singles win, but the second Doubles win for Sean.....who will he partner with now???????

SAVANNAH SWEEPER RESULTS

Both Sweepers, Members and Guests were won by 500 + scores. Good turnout for both events.

INFORMATION FOR NEXT EVENT

Yes, this is a combined newsletter from our last two stops.....Savannah TN, Doubles and Dickson, TN, Singles. Both of these centers were new hosts for a SASBA stop and did a marvelous job with the staff, facility and hospitality shown to all the bowlers. We will be back in Dickson for the Masters in December and hope to be back in Savannah next year as well.

Get well wishes to Nancy Young....hope you are on the mend and feeling better soon. Hope to see everyone in Columbia TN at the next tournament.
