CHURCHEY CHASES DOWN SMOCK FOR # 9

Just barely, but we made it to 30 enabling us to take 10 to the finals. A great turnout for the Pro-Am on Friday night.

Richard Smock was back in rare form again this week, leading most of the weekend....but unable to hang on during his final 3 games. It will come for Richard, just a matter of when. Per, Leah, "Hey, SMOCK" this is for you!".....wink, wink.

A little frost was on the pumpkin Sunday morning but most of the bowlers returned for their final four games of qualifying.

Gerry Keslar would have loved to start over on Sunday, considering his super slow start of Saturday. Got HI Sunday check....way to go!

One 300 honor score by Rich Goodrich, as reported by the spectators on the other side of the wall.

Our next stop is the team tournament in Clarksville TN at Skyline Lanes, "The Friendliest Bowling Center in the South".....also known as "The BARN".....sign up and pay by Wednesday, November 10, 2009. Computer will generate teams based upon SASBA averages. It would be great to get 30 entries for 10 teams. Also, ladies bring your equipment.....for a fun no-tap tourney sometime during the weekend.

The entire Southeast region sends deepest sympathy and prayers to the Brooks' Family.

INFORMATION FOR NEXT EVENT

The staff of Paris Family Fun Center work extremely hard to make our visit to Paris enjoyable by all. Dennis puts forth a tremendous effort with the Pro-Am.

Our grand-daughter, Leah Mae enjoyed handing out the high game $$ on Saturday.....she really enjoyed her tips and has put them away in her "secret box".

And, yes, for everyone that heard Leah call her grandpa's name.....you heard correctly.....it is "Bunny Rabbit".....ask Doug how he got that name??
