TROUTT CASTS FOR TROPHY CATCH AND FIRST SINGLES TITLE

After no tournaments for over a month, we returned to Monticello, AR and Marquee Lanes. Several new faces and some that we do not get to see very often from the SW region. A great turnout for two squads for the junior and adult Pro-Ams on Friday night.

Mark Williams was the man to "catch" on Saturday. DL baited his hook and almost reeled him in, but couldn't quite get him to the scales.

Bob Troutt not only had the trophy catch for the first place money, but the only honor score for the weekend, 300 game. Bob was able to bait Gordon into leaving a single pin on his must have strike shot, to close the small gap and net his first singles title. Great bowling: Bob, Gordon, Mark, Richard (won 7 matches), Jim O (1st tourney),

The "River" restaurant proved to be the dock of choice for a large contingency of bowlers both Friday and Saturday night.

First time bowler, Randy Shewmake, wasn't going hold without a small token on his line, great HI Sunday block, 917.

SS checks to Charlie Hufford, Ben Edwards and Judge Transou

Reggie and Josh were wonderful hosts for our stop in Monticello, AR. Great breakfast for everyone both mornings, even if you had to beat the "Baconator" to the bacon.

Two squads of Pro-Am bowlers on Friday night, helped make the tournament even better for the center, great job by the entire staff.

A long drive home for us, in the rain....but we did beat the third snowfall of the year by a few hours.

Doug and Delilah
