RETURN PERFORMANCE WINS TITLE FOR WALLISCH AND GIBSON

Back to AR, but to a new location for 2010, Millennium Bowl, and host Shane Gilmore. W had 22 Doubles teams for this outing. Scores were high all weekend.

Dirk Gibson knows how to start a tournament, with a 300 game out of the block. Team Wallisch and Gibson were close to the top of the leader board most of the weekend. Jack had a great return outing after being out for awhile with back troubles.

Hayes and Hayes came out pretty hot during the first four games of BAKER, but died the next five, father and son duo just can't seem to win one together....I guess they want to keep bowling together.

Member / Guest formats are one of my favorite formats.....positions can change so quickly.....never know until the fat lady rolls that last ball. We have three more and a Team stop planned, so start rounding up your bowling partners.

Check the website often for tournament updates and schedule information. Hope to see several of you again this summer.....maybe in Columbia TN, still plenty of room.

11thFrame

What a wide open center, Millennium in Maumelle AR. The snack bar had a killer grilled chicken salad with a wonderful vinaigrette dressing.....yum, yum!

Great weather, with no storms of any kind. Doug and Aaron Hayes along with Jeff Butler and Bob Troutt, met old bowling buddy John Talbot for an afternoon of golf.....good time was had by all.

We are still getting our kitchen back in order from the roof leak of a month ago.....getting close to completion.

Doug and Delilah
