HUFFORD PROVES MS STRONGER THAN TN AND AL

With all the finalists, except one, being from TN and AL, who else should come out on top but the odd man. There was definitely nothing odd about the scores that Charlie Hufford recorded on both days.....WOW!!!!!!!!!!!! 248-237-242-244-210-217-197-224-289-247-268-268-279-269-278-215-248-237-231 and 245

New bowling faces for our region, Bruce Michaelson was visiting in the area and came out, while newcomer to the TN area Sam Dillard also participated....thanks to you both. Great to see Phil Vogt after a long absence.

The sweeper jinx continues, if you win the sweeper, you aren't winning on Sunday, but 3rd isn't bad.

Ron Sowa didn't realize out much his bowling skills were admired until the opening bid for the Calcutta —$100, took him by surprise.....Leah says, "Thank-you."

Several Honor Scores; 300 games by Tony Churchey and Ralph Siebe. Tony also had a 290 games. Champion, Charlie Hufford, booked two: 804 and 826.

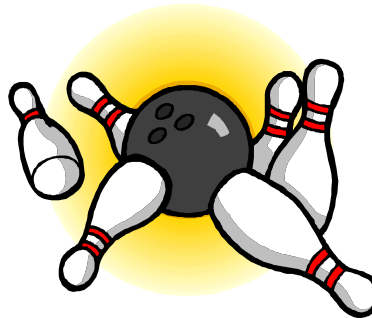

The thermometer was as high as the scores posted in Columbia. The heat remains high, so stay inside and bowl. Make plans to be in Tupelo for the SE's next stop, or venture on to one of the SW's stops.....stay

A short drive to the tournament site and sleeping in your own bed on Friday and Saturday night are always a big plus. The weather always seems to be extremely hot when we go to Columbia, and this weekend was no exception. At least this event is indoors, unlike the CMA and Bonnaroo Festivals going on nearby.

Next stop in MS, Rebel Lanes, let's try to get 36 bowlers, July 17-18. Draft a traveling buddy, Let's fill the house.

Doug and Delilah
