Ringmaster “West” Prevails at Three Ring Circus

Thirty three bowlers made their way to Rebelanes in Tupelo for July’s SE SASBA stop. Several LA bowlers made the trip North. Good to see Phil Ballard and Bill Taylor out competing. Thanks to newcomer Byron Cox for participating in this stop.

The Calcutta had a quite a few interesting bids, camels and goats? I guess this really was a circus stop. Some even came in costume and provided entertainment during the bidding.

Getting the tournament started was a real challenge, but the bowlers prevailed over the down lanes, after several lane moves.

Whatever Roger didn’t have on Saturday he certainly located Saturday evening, averaging 250 for his four qualifying games on Sunday.

No honor scores until the final game of qualifying....300 game by Fred Barnes and Ricky Siegfried....way to finish the tournament.

Ball sales were brisk, as we sold all twelve balls on Friday during the sweeper.....a first for us.....thanks to everyone for supporting SASBA-SE.

Next tournament is M/G Doubles in Savannah TN, limited to 32 doubles teams. Hope to see everyone there.

HISTORY LESSON 101

Tupelo is named after the “Tupelo” gum tree, which was once prominent in the area. The first European to see the area was Hernando De Soto in 1540. The native Chickasaws battled De Soto and drove him westward where he discovered the Mississippi River near present day Memphis.

In 1736 a large battle took place at the height of the French and Indian War between the British armed Chickasaws and the French armed Choctaws. The battle established British control over most of the SE. Tupelo was major stop along the Indian trade routed Natchez Trace. As English settlers flooded the area in the 1700’s the Trace was a major travel route for them.

The area was the site of a large Civil War battle which was won by the Federals who gained control of the railroad that aided in supplying Sherman as he advanced through Atlanta on his “March to the Sea”.

The city of Tupelo was incorporated in 1870 in “dry” Lee County (after Robert E Lee) and quickly established itself as a major crossroads. Tupelo also has the distinction of being the first city supplied with reliable electricity form the newly founded Tennessee Valley Authority –TVA. Modern Tupelo is now mostly known as the birthplace of “The King”, Elvis Presley.....thank you DL.

11TH FRAME

Good to KNOW INFO

Whew, that was exhausting.....not the smoothest tournament we have ever had, but everyone made it through, by practicing that amazing virtue....patience.

Hopefully, any issues during the Tupelo stop will not repeat in Savannah nor during our return to Tupelo later in the year for a member/guest.

Remember entries are limited to 32 in Savannah....sign up early, we are going to fill the house. See you there!!
