"B" TEAM of Barsotti and Branum Win FunQuest

Twenty eight doubles teams ventured to Collierville for our stop at FunQuest. Two squads were necessary due to lane restrictions....but overall the tournament went smoothly. Everyone should be aware that they do not want Carl Barsotti to qualify in the last spot in a doubles tournament.....he will win! Carl has won both of his doubles titles coming from this position.

Scores were high all weekend....with several honor scores. Dirk Gibson 800 / 290, Brian Kuykendall 800, Nick Branum 290, Carl Bar-sotti, Aaron Hayes 300, Michael Shirley 298.....but the overall big shooter was Mykel Holliman....268, 300, 268, 267, 236, 258, 258 and 212.

Thanks to all who came out to support SASBA SE, the Holliman Family had three members bowling.

This is suppose to be Carl's and Nick's picture....but guess what.. I couldn't get the silly thing pasted in here.....not a new process but one that wouldn't work today....look for it in a later volume.....Sorry, Carl and Nick....it's a pretty good one.

11TH FRAME

Good to KNOW INFO

Nice field for a doubles tournament...bowling in one squad would have improved the bracket participation.....but we have to do what we can in our host centers.

Darnell and her staff do an excellent job for all the bowlers and guests....thanks for the hospitality.

Next stop is another M/G in Tupelo....we've been told we won't recognize Rebelanes.

See you there!!
