NEW SHOW in Tupelo ‘STUNTZ & CORBIN STOMP’

Seventeen doubles partners made their way South to Rebelanes in Tupelo.

Gordon Stuntz started the weekend off on a win by capturing the Friday sweeper title.....and he didn't look back. Gordon and Tyler lead qualifying by 157, not an insurmountable lead in doubles. After 11 games of Baker, that lead grew to 441 pins.....awesome bowling by Gordon and Tyler. Congrats on your first title, President Gordon.

Honor scores included 299 by Kelly Baker, 290 by his partner Earl Bell, 300 from Gordon Stuntz to include 809 series and 801 by Charlie Hufford.

Ron Sowa competed in his first SASBA doubles, Jim Walcott from Nashville area participated as a guest for the first time....thanks to all for their support of SASBA SE.

Special permission has been granted by the bowling gods, that in order to bowl in the Annual Championship in Clarksville you only have to have bowled in one SASBA event.

A new format for upcoming M/G doubles is also being discussed.....check the website and future newsletters for updates.

11TH FRAME

Good to KNOW INFO

A small turnout for M/G in Tupelo.....small field for the SE, is not unusual but the norm.

A special thank you to Laura Madsen for helping run everything on Saturday during Delilah's absence from Tupelo and the other named helpers during Sundays' Baker round.....thank you very much.

Next two stops are in Tennessee, first Paris and then Annual Championship in Clarksville.

See you there!!

Doug and Delilah
