Ware Repeats and Alters History

Thirty five bowlers rolled into Nashville’s Tusculum Lanes for our 2nd stop of the year.

Several new faces: Jim Brown, David White, Tim Bridges, Chuck Allen, Sue Schellhardt and Chung Rigsby hope to see you all back at another SASBA SE tournament.

An average of 221 was needed to make match play on Sunday.

A big congrats to Ramon Delgado for the Hi Sunday block of a 914.

Scores remained rather tight at the top through maajority of match play.....from game 6 to game 8 ...40 +/- pins separated the top 4 positions.

Sue Schellhardt making a great effort to be the first woman to win a SASBA singles title led by 24 pins going into the final game of match play. Ron Ware won the match 237 vs 234, to win by 9 pins, altering the current SASBA record books. Doug finished another 12 pins back in 3rd place.

Scores were high, but there were no honor scores all weekend.

Thanks to all the bowlers who bought bowling balls, we were sold out by end of day Saturday.....and could have sold more.

The next tournament is in Monticello AR, we can always expect great hospitality and great food from Reggie, Josh and staff.

11TH FRAME

Good to KNOW INFO

It is always a pleasure to visit a center owned by the JayMarFEC group.....a clean facility, great staff, good food and lots of laughs.....and you will always see the owners in person.

Delilah enjoyed being back with the SASBA group after being away for two stops due to surgery and work obligations.

Sue, Dad said, "Way to go", he was very proud of your performance, but wasn't surprised by ithe knew you could do it.

Doug and Delilah
