Lefty Lecroy Leads Monticello Stop

Our final number, thirty seven, up one, back two, up one, back one.....but ended up with a good field in Monticello AR.

Two honor scores this weekend, Jim Stephens and Bob Troutt, both left handers and on the same pair....go figure.

Left, right, left, right, left, right.....no this isn't a cadence count....add handed to the above list and you have the finals for the top six spots. Joe Lecroy, Doug Hayes, Jim Stephens, Mark Saale, Ron Ware and Roger West.

Since we were in Monticello, AR.....that naturally means food all weekend long. Breakfast both mornings and a great “Crawfish Boil” Saturday afternoon.

A big SASBA “Happy Birthday” and welcome to Rusty Beach.....great showing on your first stop.....hope to see you at many more stops.

Thanks to all the LA and TX SASBA members who made the trip to Monticello.

Reggie and Josh treat everyone so kindly during the tournament, we look forward to returning for the Team Tournament.

Thanks to all the bowlers who bought bowling balls, we were sold out by end of day Saturday.....and could have sold more.

The next tournament is M/G Doubles in Maumelle AR, May 21-22, 2011.....find a partner and sign up early.
