A Peach of a Birthday Win for Georgia Shaw

Our final number, twenty eight.....hoped for 24 and bettered that by 4....so for the SE a normal turnout.

Two honor scores this weekend, Ben Edwards 804 and Scott Huther 299 / 813, all bowled on Sunday.

A good “Southern” field made the match-play finals....six different state represented.....TN, AL, MS, OK, GA and LA.....well most of them are in the South.

What a great birthday present for Jeff Shaw, winning his first SASBA tournament and beating the veteran

Roger West in the final game of match-play. Roger was up 36 pins going into the final game but Shaw came out on top 191 to 255.

A very strong showing by all the finalists in match play.....the field averaged a whopping 235.8, pretty awesome bowling.

No lilies, no 300 games, pretty uneventful tournament.

Ben Edwards tied for the last two high side pots with 279 each game. The 2nd SS check went to 23rd place finisher, Larry Swanson. Half of the finalists were SS.

DL may not be here, but

Tony Churchey is filling in for him in his absence, missing the cut 3 out of 4 tournaments.

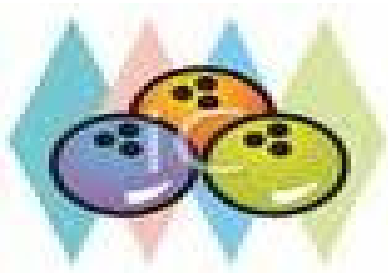

Another good stop for selling our Ebonite balls, thanks for the support.

The next tournament is M/G Doubles at Winchester, in Memphis TNJul 23-24, 2011.....find a partner and sign up early.

11TH FRAME

Good to KNOW INFO

Well, after a month break, the SE is back rolling again. Boy did the storms roll through Columbia during Saturday's qualifying. What is it about the SE and bad weather?

We finish the year alternating between Singles and M/G stops....which mean the next stop is M/G in Memphis.....line up your partner and let's have a good turnout at Winchester.....see you there.
