Finally a “FAMILY” Win

It looked like we might finally break the 30 mark fell one short, with 29 sets of doubles for the Winchester stop.

Two honor scores this weekend, Grady Creasie opening game on Saturday and Jeff Shaw both rolling a perfect 300.

The lead changed several times during Sunday’s match play. Sue Schellhardt had another good look for a SASBA title but she and partner Jeff Butler fell short in the final game.

Father and son duo of Doug and Aaron Hayes held them off 235 to 221 to claim the doubles title that has eluded them in so many attempts.

Aaron Hayes lead all bowlers during Saturday’s qualifying round with 2003 for the eight games. Grady Creasie was back on top for the seniors with 1946.

Bob Troutt flew in from Jonesboro, flew home and decided to come back on Sunday to bowl in another sweeper.

DL came out on Saturday and helped with a few tournament tasks, thanks DL, we miss you.

Another good stop for selling our Ebonite balls, thanks for the support. Again we didn’t have to transport anything home to our garage.

Back to back stops in August, Huntsville / Singles and Savannah / M-G Doubles. August closes out with a return trip to Dickson TN / Singles.

Happy early birthday to Doug, who becomes a SS on August 14.

11TH FRAME

Good to KNOW INFO

Always fun to be in Memphis, great local turnout for SASBA. No bad weather to report, just boiling hot.

Next stop in Huntsville AL, let's support fellow SASBA bowler, Ron Ware with a good turnout.

There are three SE SASBA stops in August so everyone should have an opportunity to come out and play at least one weekend.....see you there, or maybe there or maybe even there.

Doug and Delilah
