Kruse Cruises to 2nd Title

Mission Impossible was met this weekend when the SE region finally broke the 30 mark, with 32 bowlers in Dickson.

One of our entrants, Iam Newbie, had to be replaced at the last minute with a special entrance by DL Moody. Be sure to check out his picture on the SASBA website. DL made it through 8 games at +4. Hopefully, DL will be back full strength soon.

Two honor scores, 299 games from Jim Kruse and Roger West and 813 for Jim as well.

The top ten after Saturdays' qualifying went on to be the 10 finalists. With 2 games of match play remaining, a mere 26 pins separated the top 4 spots.

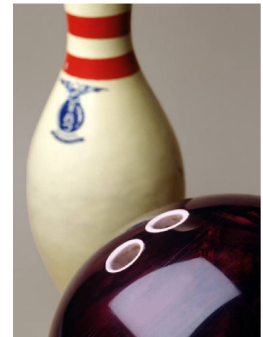

The winner of the final match between Jim and Doug would determine the champion.....Jim beats Doug 258 to 239.

Our female stand-out, Sue Schellhardt, made another finals.

Four of seven left-handers made the top 10. No one fell down or passed out, but Ben Edwards did have to withdraw with a bad knee, hopefully not a bad injury.

Can you say SELL OUT, yes we sold all the balls and bag again in Dickson.....thanks, it really does help the group / prize list.

Next two stops, are in Tupelo MS, first M/G followed two weeks later with a Singles stop....hope we can fill the house X two.....see you there.

11TH FRAME

Good to KNOW INFO

You know what is so great about having a SASBA stop close to home, sleeping in your own bed, even if it takes you an 90 minutes instead of 45 minutes to get there.

Thunder Alley and their staff are always great for all the SASBA bowlers. The wives and spectators would love to have parkas available for use, BRRRR!

Great weather weekend, not so darn hot.....several players had a nice golfing afternoon on Saturday.

Doug and Delilah
