Prof Charlie has Winning Formula

A field of twenty three bowlers made their way to Carter Lanes in Paris, TN.....October 22-23, 2011. This field was made up of almost 50% SS, does that tell us anything? Half of the final eight were also SS members.

Two honor scores, 300 games, both by SS.....Billy Sales and Charlie Hufford. This was Ben's first tournament since his knee injury, great to have him back and rolling again.

Doug Hayes had a first.....his first SS check on Sunday. SS checks also went to Sam Howell and Johnny Cook.

Tony Churchey was hoping to “FOUR PEAT” but never did get to rolling as he has in years past. Charlie lead after qualifying, only won 4 matches but had built a good lead and was able to maintain his hold on the top spot rolling on to capture another SASBA title.

Several new faces for SASBA SE, John Deloney and Greg Carter, owner of Carter Lanes.

Ballots will be soon available for Bowler of the Year, SS Bowler of the Year and Rookie of the Year....check the website.

I have lost track of how many tournaments in a row that we have sold all of our Ebonite equipment.....THANKS.

Last two stops for 2011 are Annual Championship in Clarksville, TN and Team tournament in Monticello, AR.

11TH FRAME

Good to KNOW INFO

Only two stops remain, hopefully we can have good turnout for both to finish out 2011.

Hard to believe Halloween has past and Thanksgiving is right around the corner.

Greg Carter and his staff did an excellent job of hosting the SASBA bowlers....several upgrades have been made to the center that really have made a huge improvement. We hope to be back to Paris next year.

Delilah just got back from a nice girls' week in the hills of Alabama.....great to get away.
