Congrats to David Rountree, SASBA bowler of the year 2004 and Gary Dickinson super senior of the year and all of the other award winners and new members of the SASBA hall of fame, Mark Estes, Rick Talley, Dick Smith, and Chuck Pierce. See ya in Tulsa!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

JB's SASBA Notes

Dennis Howard received the dog of the week award with a 139.

Gary Dickinson came to the awards ceremony and he looks great.

Jim King in his neck brace appeared, also, and gave a great presentation putting Mark Estes in the hall of fame.

Dick Smith had the shortest speech ever, thank you.

We wish you and yours a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.....

JINGLE BELL, JINGLE BELL, JINGLE BELL ROCK!

And rock we did with laughter and fun and lots of Christmas spirit. The only thing we lacked was more room. Thirty Red Hatters and two guests met at the Southfork Hotel in Plano last Friday and celebrated the season. Our hostess, Jan Colaluca, put on an absolutely great party! We recapped all the great events we had in 2004 and thanked our hostesses for those events, and everyone who helped to make our year a success. Our special thanks were expressed to all those who participated in the Red Hat Quilt Project. We are looking forward to an even more exciting 2005. The Chinese Gift Grab was a rousing success. We had some heated exchanges, but no one left mad! Secret Sisters were revealed and lots of gifts were exchanged. Our anonymous donor who has provided us with wonderful door prizes all year was finally revealed and is none other than that "little devil", Ellen Wall, all the way from Tupelo, Mississippi. All you who were lucky enough to win one of those great door prizes this year will want to say a special "thank you" to Ellen.

Our Webmistress, Gayle Currie, added to the Christmas decorations with a clothesline full of red panties and received some more to add to the collection. Gayle, are you planning a "Red Panty Christmas Tree" this year? Our hostess, Jan Colaluca, won the door prize and received a hostess gift too. It was richly deserved. For those of you who didn't know, Jan planned and prepared for our Christmas Celebration while anxiously awaiting the results of a bone marrow test. We are so thankful that she finally received a good report. We were all delighted that Pat Paine, who looked "Red Hat wonderful", was able to join us. Pat has been fighting lymphoma and will begin treatment Tuesday morning at Methodist Hospital in Houston. Please keep her in your prayers.

The absolutely most exciting event of the evening was the drawing for our beautiful Red Hat Quilt. I almost hyperventilated when the name was drawn. The winner was Pat McGowen of Chandler, TX. Your Queenie was privileged this morning to dress up in my "Red Hat best" and present the quilt to Pat at the Green Acres Bowling Center in Tyler. I was assisted by Lavella Roper who sold the winning ticket. We hope to have pictures of Pat soon on our website. She was so happy to win and wanted to extend her heartfelt thanks to all those who had a hand in making the quilt. Bettie Sands and Deb Ellison tied for selling the most tickets, 500 each, and received a prize for their efforts. Lavella Roper received a prize for selling the winning ticket. Ladies, we raised $4,420.00 for the Susan B. Komen Foundation with our quilt! I think that is absolutely amazing and I am so proud of all you. What a great job!

We have been approached by Susie Reichley with WIBC to join with them in the 2005 Bowl for the Cure Kick-Off Challenge at Don Carter All Star Lanes West in Dallas. Susie was a guest at our party and spoke to us about joining in the tournament with them and donating our money through them to the Komen Foundation. She assured us that the funds would go 100% to the Komen Foundation and that the SASBA Red Hatters would receive recognition for their contribution. We feel that it is important that everyone have a vote in this decision so you all will be getting an email from me very soon with more information concerning this.

It was a great party. All of you who weren't there were sorely missed. It is my wish that all of you and those you love have a wonderful and safe holiday season.

Merry Christmas to All! Queenie Jeanne
