Joe Diaz outlasted tournament leader Gene Rivers the final match game to win his first Ebonite Senior Tour tournament in the Non-Champions event at Fiesta Lanes in New Braunfels. Louis Roper was second, Gene Rivers third, Leon Aragon fourth, and Ben Edwards fifth. Leo Kieseewetter ran over the field in the Champions Tournament to win his first title in twelve years. Fred Barnes started the finals with 21 strikes in a row and finished second. Chuck Pierce was third, Norm Clark fourth, and Tommy Crouch fifth.

Our next tournament is at Diamond Lanes in Pasadena, Texas. This is two tournaments in one.

One tournament is a super senior event and the other is a senior tournament. Both tournaments will have $2,000.00 added.

The Super Seniors will all bowl on A Squad and the Seniors will bowl on B Squad.

SEE you there!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Jamie's Tournament Notes

Bill Sinsabaugh has been getting lessons and brought his new game out. He will do anything to get mentioned in this newsletter. He won the dog of the week award with 123 low game of the tournament.

Jim King has been giving lessons to Louis Roper and he finished second. Fred Engquist left the ringing lily. Marshall Medlin won the sweeper on Friday and bowled so bad on Saturday that he almost got the BoLo award for the second time. Dave Hoff is back from that terrible auto wreck and finished 16th, and he even made one seven pin. Bob Freehauf burned the tips of his fingers cranking the ball up. He was hooking it at least 10 boards. Zap has been practicing everyday and will be ready for Pasadena.

RED HAT REPORT

The sky over New Braunfels was cloudy, but a flock of sixteen Red Hatters and two guests brightened the day considerably as we met for lunch at Huisache Grill for our first event of 2005.

Your Queenie was privileged to host this first event of the year, but ladies I can tell you, it certainly won't be the best. Events are in the works for later in the year that will be so much fun you will never forgive yourself if you miss them. You will be hearing more about this as plans are developed so stay tuned.

I think everyone enjoyed Huisache Grill – the food was great! Your Queenie was gifted with a bell as hostess at the beginning of our luncheon. I proceeded to make myself totally obnoxious by ringing it repeatedly. Those of you who were not there missed receiving one of my handmade valentines (and since I have two left hands, they were quite SPECIAL) and one of my homemade (will wonders never cease) cookies for dessert. I did not forget the Bracket Broads! You also missed a chance to tell about your first romantic kiss. We're not talking, but there were some pretty unusual stories. Peggy won a prize with her "unusual story" and Lavella Roper won a prize for the "goriest" story. Barbara Redlinger won the first, newly instituted, "Lady Bug" Award for being the first person to RSVP. Promptness has its privileges! Charleen Schneider was our lucky door prize winner – a teacup full of posies. Several lucky ladies, myself included, also received gifts from their Secret Sisters. Thanks to Bettie Sands who was our Event Photographer.

Ladies, upcoming events will be posted on our website as soon as we get dates firmed up. It appears that the only months open for events are March, April, May, and September, so if anyone is interested in hosting an event for either of these months, please contact me as soon as possible. As it stands now, our next events will be hosted by Bettie Sands in June at Shreveport, Pat Paine in July at Copperfield, Betty Britton in August at Conroe, and Lavella Roper in October at Longview. Becky McElroy has been appointed Chairwoman of our SPECIAL EVENT Committee and along with Betty Britton, Brenda Park, and Peggy Brooks, is planning an event so spectacular you just won't believe it. Plans are so secret that even I, your Royal Queen, don't know all the details, but as soon as I do, I'll share them and the date with you. Just to give you a "heads up", Betty Britton's event in Conroe will be "The Little Shop of Hobbies", so all you crafty, talented ladies need to begin thinking about what you can bring to Betty's to sell to your not so crafty sisters. Betty says baked goods will be accepted – I'm polishing up my cookie recipe! More details on this later.

We have three new members, ladies. Please be sure to extend to them the "Red Glove of Friendship" at the first opportunity. They are Sharon Beltz, Kathy King, and Kati West. We are so happy to have them join us.

The letter to the Komen Foundation that will accompany our donation, along with pictures, was read and Peggy will be getting that in the mail this week. My special thanks once again to all of you who participated in this project.

Hatting is Good for What Ails you!
