PIERCE-OATMAN WIN

Chuck Pierce and Billy Oatman ran away from the field in the Ebonite Senior Tour's Member-Guest Tournament at Dynamic Lanes in Houston. They led the qualifying by 149 pins and never looked back. Ron Benz and Donald Savant finished second, Dick Smith and Joe Lecroy were third, Charles Avant and Ted Pritts; fourth, and Larry Thompson Sr and Larry Thompson Jr were fifth. The bowling condition was great on both sides. Thanks to Donna Conners for setting it up for us.

will be room for 64 Super and 64 Seniors, don't get shut out. See ya there!!!!

Our next event will be a Combo which is a Super Senior Tournament and a Senior Tournament in the same center at the same time that is two prize funds, and is not doubles. There

Jamie's Tournament Notes

Jerry Dickerson had the double dog of the week with two 142 games, low games of the tournament. Three hundreds were rolled by, Fred Barnes, Trea Ward, and Jamie Brooks. Chuck Pierce and Tim Dickerson left the lily. Larry Thompson Jr still can not beat his dad.

Bob Neely showed up to watch Saturday after a month in the hospital, he looked great. Work hard Bob and come back and bowl with us. Someone saw TJ Johnson's ball hook????? Naw!!! No way!!! David Rountree was an hour early for the first squad, a new record.

Dave Hoff and DJ Goss came dressed as bumble bee-hornets. A gigantic one for sure. Jim King is up to 15 pounds on the way back. A rumor is that Steve McBride's bowling equipment fell in to a creek or river somewhere.
