Roger West made it two wins in a row in the Super Senior Tournament in the Ebonite Senior Tour in Port Arthur. Bob Freehauf finished second, qualifying leader Harry Reeves was third, Chuck Pierce fourth, and Bernie Carlisle was fifth.

Mike Fleming came from the middle of the pack to average over 250 in the finals to edge David Ozio the last match to win the Senior Tournament. Rick Minier was third, Pat Brownfield fourth, and Tom Wolf finished fifth. Paul Kreins, one of the new owners of Park Central had the lanes in fine condition. The scores were great and both sides of the lane were playable. We welcome Paul as a new member to SASBA.

The member-guest doubles in Fort Worth will be June 11-12th at Don Carter City View. Please remember that the entry fee is $320. Please let your guests know what our dress code is. Guys in jeans or shorts will not be allowed to bowl. Our next event is this weekend, a super senior tournament at All Star Lanes in Shreveport. See you super seniors there!!!!!!!

Jamie's Tournament Notes

Mike Littleton won the Senior dog of the week award with 112 and J D Whitley won the Super Senior dog of the week award with 129, both had low games of the tournaments.

Maury Newman and Rick Minier had 300 games.

Marshall Medlin and Roger West tied their match in the finals, each one was afraid of being sued.

Charlie Pickett had three SW minus ones in two games. He spared two of them.

Stan received a carved wooden 10 inch statue of himself crafted by Louie Pryor. The statue had Stan on the approach, with hands in the pockets. The caption on the art work said. WOW! Did you see that? Louie, it looked just like him! It is great!

On a double sad note, Lynn Leflore and Henry Mason both passed away since the last newsletter.

Steve McBride is home recuperating for by-pass surgery.

Get well soon Stevie we are missing you!

Zap had 817 qualifying for the sweeper, then rolled a 160 game the first match. Tommy Crouch thanked him.

Steve Cross got his first SASBA check.

We had 95 entries, up ten from last year!
