RIVERS SQUEAKS OUT FIRST WIN

Eugene "THE STRIKIN' MACHINE" Rivers rolled a 279 last game with three strikes in the tenth to edge qualifying leader Fred Barnes, in the Ebonite Senior Tour Super Senior Tournament in Shreveport. This was River's first win. Barnes still could win with a double in the tenth, he went strike, ten pin for second place. CJ Johnson finished third, he won the sweeper and the Skills Challenge, and was going for three wins in a weekend. Fourth place was Bob McGregor, and Tommy Crouch came in fifth.

OH but the lefties have no shot at All Star Lanes! I crossed with Tommy and he pounded the pocket and rolled 199, 190, 193, 189, 224, 213, 279, 269, 194, 260, 199, 204, 268, 204, 236, 199, 289, 225, 268, 235, for a 226 average fourth best in the field, with no shot he beat 67 other bowlers.

The Firecracker Tournament will be in Fort Worth and is two tournaments; a Senior and Super Senior singles events.

The Member-Guest Doubles is next in Fort Worth, please remind your partner about our dress code, See ya there!!!!!!

Jamie's Tournament Notes

Louis Roper rolled 135 to win the dog of the week award for low game of the tournament.

Fred Barnes, Jerry Beavers, James LeCroy, and Matt Stewart rolled 300 games. James LeCroy won $100.00 from Ebonite, he was using a Ebonite Ice.

Would you think that straight is great in Shreveport???

Marshall Medlin and Charlie Pickett both had extreme RB's.

Dewey Crow had a SW minus one and we saw a lily rolled by Ewing Adcock, it is good to see that animal back with us.

You could always find Claude in the bar and he doesn't drink. Stan was with him. Stan bowled great, I don't want to ever hear him lament about over under ever again.

David Addington made a trip back home to Tyler to get his pills. Five hours later he found them in his motor home, not at home.

Ronnie Rhodes got a check.

CJ Johnson won the skills challenge. The Grand Finals will be at the team tournament, and we have $205.00 in the pot so far. Jerry Beavers was second and cashed.

James LeCroy needed the hundred that he won for his 300 game to pay the locksmith to open Leon Aragon's car. James locked the keys in the trunk.

Syd Thornton lost his wheels Sunday, and they were not to be found.

Someone blew the bugle and the Sunday second squad was in retreat.

A SW is a Stan Workman, that is picking off the ten pin on the first ball, a minus one is a gutter ball. A RB is named for Richard Britton; that is missing the head pin going away, an Extreme misses the 2 other three pin going away.

IT WAS A REAL SOUTHERN TEA PARTY ...

... complete with "to die for" chicken salad and iced tea (Paula Dean eat your heart out)! Eleven Red Hatters all decked out in their best "tea party" finery enjoyed the food and each other at the Glenwood Village Tea Room last Saturday afternoon. The food was especially good (at least one Red Hatter bought a copy of the Glenwood Village Cookbook) and as always "the girls" had a really good time. After stuffing ourselves, and doing some shopping at the Tea Room, Bettie took us on a tour of the Louisiana countryside and then to Kevin's Korner for more shopping. I want y'all to know that I am still trying to put that nine-piece Red Hat puzzle together. How can anything so simple, be so hard? A big Red Hat round of applause for our hostess Bettie Sands.

Bettie made us all feel "royal" by gifting us with lighted butterfly wands. I'm saving mine to "hat" Miss Cindy as soon as Steve gets well enough for her to attend an event. We, in turn, presented Bettie with a small token of our appreciation for hosting such a great event. The door prize was won by Nanci Johnson. Nanci just kept pulling things out of that box - two scarves, a pin, and a keychain - all appropriately "Red Hat". We had a second-time winner for the Ladybug Award. Donna Smith (who won the April Ladybug Award by replying first) won this time for replying sixth. The fourth person to RSVP (yes or no) after my official announcement of the Conroe Event (Little Shop of Hobbies) in July will win the next award. Bettie had a cute game for us to play and first prize went to Lavella Roper who scored 122 points. I think it was "years married" that put her over the top. Betty Britton won the booby prize with 50 points. Lots of Secret Sister gifts were delivered (by your hard-working Queenie - I had to get a crate to carry them). I enjoy being the delivery person, but I hope no one else gives me something to deliver that I have to keep alive. We were so glad to have Judy Moon back with us. Judy we know those grandbabies are a wonderful distraction, but, hey, your Red Hat Sisters have been missing you.

Y'all will be happy to know that although our EVENT OF THE YEAR has been postponed, our fabulous Webmistress, Gayle Currie, has volunteered to host an event on that same date at Cowtown. I wouldn't miss that one for the world - no telling what Gayle will come up with.

Watch your email for details of a RED HAT RETREAT! That's all I'm saying about it right now.

If you weren't there, we missed you. Each of you adds something special to any event that you attend.

Red Hatting is Good Medicine!
