MINIER & MR X DOUBLES CHAMPS

Rick Minier and Xeno Garcia out lasted Jim Stephens and Chris Johnson to win the Ebonite Senior Tour's Member-Guest Doubles Tournament in Dallas. Minier and Garcia were the qualifying leaders. Fred Barnes and Eric Traylor finished third, Mike Fleming and Mark Burkenbine fourth, and Gary Dickinson and Todd Zinner finished fifth.

Thanks to Ebonite for donating two XXXCEL balls; one to the first out in the sweeper (Robert Grigsby) and one to the first out in the tournament, (Les Burnham).

Linds Shoe Company has joined us. They will sponsor our skills challenge and Summerville Tournament, and Sweeper. The shoes for the sweeper will go to a bowler not cashing by draw. This time the shoes were won by Bob Maxfield. The other pair will go to the first out in the tournament, this time it was Don Ratliff. Thanks to Jim King for negotiating the deal.

If you have not had a 300 game this year, and would like one come to Conroe at 300 Bowl, our next tournament. Barry Chapman has always provided a lane condition to live up to the center's name.

We will be using the new sweeper format, $20 entry fee, Two gamers, starting at 11AM, every hour on the hour, last squad 5PM, NO FINALS.

Jamie's Tournament Notes

There was a triple dog of the week, awarded for low game of the tournament a 148 rolled by Mike Holland, Mike Monticue, and Truman Kennemer.

Three hundreds were rolled by Eric Traylor, Joe Lecroy, Aric Alcaez, and Chuck Pierce.

Jim King had a CP.

New member Ron Boroff made the finals in his first try.

Mike Fleming did not win.

Ronnie Diamond finished, barely. Gary Dickinson missed more spares than his partner Todd Zinner, a first.

Stan is doing good.

We saw Steve McBride, and he is doing good too.

BOB Freehauf's partner's ball NEVER hooked. He makes John Woessner look like a cranker.

Butch Calvert was back after his fall from a trampoline.

Bob Freehauf won the sweeper, two in a row.

Thomas Patterson cashed in the sweeper, Tracy didn't. Good luck to Thomas, he is going into the Marines.

Dick Smith and Joe Lecroy bowled in their 25th Member-Guest tournament.

Zap won the skills challenge, Marshall didn't. Zap and Marshall have a bet about who can lose the most weight till the SS/Guest tournament. The weigh in is July 11th. Marshall was eating cheeseburgers, fries, and ice cream at the bowl, the he was going home to chardonnay and lasagna before the weigh in.
