Gene Rivers captured his second Ebonite Senior Tour title at Copperfield Bowl in Houston. Both wins required a strong finish. The first time in Shreveport he rolled 279 for the win, this time he recorded a 267 to shut out Tommy Crouch's 238. Paul McCordic was second, same as last year. Tommy Crouch finished third, Mike Holland fourth, and Rick Minier was fifth.

Rivers rolled two 300 games in the finals, Thanks to Mike Nelson for his hard work having the center ready for us. We have $5000.00 added for the Super Senior/Senior Doubles in Odessa. YOU DO NOT NEED A PARTNER!! Partners will be determined by qualifying score. There will be a pro-am Friday night. Also there will be a second chance doubles tournament Sunday with a $1000.00 added. Our next event will be at The Beav's Holiday Lanes in Oklahoma City. A Pro-Am will be held on Friday night there. Come on we will see ya there!!!!!!!

Jamie's Tournament Notes

Russ Ramsey rolled a 116 to get the dog of the week award for low game of the tournament.

Three hundred games were rolled by Gene Rivers (2), Phil Bailey, John Wukasch, Dennis Francis, and Rick Minier.

Quigley Eyes made the finals. Dennis Francis had a RB.

There were too many SW+I's to mention.

Billy Hargett had one and missed the finals by one pin, OUCH!

Fred Barnes did not make the finals.

Bill Anderson won the Linds Shoes for finishing first out of the money.

Leon Aragon won the Linds Shoes in the sweeper.

We had 110 entries in the sweeper.

It was Jim Ensminger's and Toby Yeager's shot.

Jim King has cashed once in the last eleven tournaments. Maybe he ought to give himself a lesson.

Roger West could not carry.

He only averaged 239.40.

Mike Holland bowled great!

We saw 88 year old Joe Burnett at the tournament.

David Addington liked it.

Some one said the Tubby has lost twenty pounds.

Butch Calvert had ten pin troubles, that is making them.

Richard Britton was the third heaviest on his pair Saturday.

Leo Markward has been sneaking off getting lessons from a legend. No wonder he is so tough.

COMMENTS FROM COPPERFIELD

It was the perfect ladies' luncheon, from the private room with a beautiful view to the red rose petals scattered on the white tablecloth. Twelve Red Hatters gathered at Hearthstone Country Club last Saturday to enjoy delicious food, and to talk and laugh as only twelve women can. We discussed upcoming events, shared some stories, told some jokes, and learned an exciting new use for pepper. You just never know what will happen at a Red Hat Event. It was a great day!

Patricia Paine was a gracious hostess, as always, so she really deserved not only the hostess gift, but the door prize, and two gifts from her Secret Sister as well. I think Alene Hensley may have started a trend. Gayle Currie, our Webmistress who does such a great job with our Red Hat Website, was snapping pictures. Watch for them on the website. Peggy Brooks "volunteered" Alene Hensley to host an event in San Antonio next year. I think Alene agreed. It's hard to say "no" to the "Princess of Prod"! Just ask Renae Crouch, CeCe Garcia, Sharon Beltz, and Gayle Currie.

Several lucky ladies, myself included, received gifts and cards from their Secret Sisters. Boy this "secret sister thing" is fun – just like Christmas, only more often. The Ladybug Award was won by Jan Colaluca, who unfortunately was unable to attend (we missed you, Jan). Ellen Wall was there after an eight-month absence while husband Don recovered from shoulder surgery. We are sure glad to have her back. We were also glad to see Sue Ellison who hasn't been able to come for a while. When you aren't there, we miss you. Each of you brings something special to our events that no one else can bring.

Our next event will be Friday, August 26, in Odessa. Donna Smith will be our hostess for this event and she has exciting plans for us. Mark your calendar now and tell your hubby he's bowling in Odessa. I'll be getting an email out to all of you soon with the final details.

Red Hatting is Just Plain Fun!
