Merry Minstrels Win

The Merry Minstrels qualified fourth and won four Baker matches to capture the Ebonite Senior Tour's Annual Christmas Team Tournament in Plano. Team members Larry Stroud, Win Cockrell, Marshall Medlin, Steve McBride, and Paul Coover are the new Champions. They bested Jim Paine, Rich Black, Dick Smith, Jim Redlinger, and Bob McGregor, who finished fifth, the first match 214-191. Then they eased by Charlie McCoy, Tommy Crouch, Mike Monticue, Al Denton, and Ron Depolo, who finished fourth, 203-191. Then they blasted Boyd Clark, George Calloway, Charlie Pickett, David Zappitelli, and DeWayne Thompson 243-206. The tournament leaders were their next victims, 214-191, Steve Thompson, Art Buser, Leo Markwardt, Jamie Brooks, and Fred Barnes, who finished second. Thirteen of the twenty-five teams cashed.

Thanks to Bob Reid and Steve Szbina at Ebonite for sponsoring SASBA! They provided 400 comp balls, 50 comp bags, $5,000.00 to the Firecracker Tournament, and $1,500.00 for the hundred dollar awards for bowling 300 with an Ebonite ball. As you know we sell these balls and bags to our players. The profit goes into the added money in our tournaments. They have some GREAT balls on the market now, The One, Crossfire, Overtime, Big Time, the XXCEL, and the XXXCel. Try them and tell your friends about them, even Ron Depolo is hooking them.

Our next event is in Beaumont at Mark William's Crossroads Bowl, This is a Member Guest Doubles limited to 80 teams, see ya there!!!!

Jamie's Tournament Notes

Claude Thomas rolled a 120 to win the dog of the week award, for low game of the tournament.

Perfecto's were rolled by Cliff Park and DeWayne (Captain Cadillac) Thompson.

John Precourt won all of his matches.

Captain Cadillac averaged 239, he must be getting good coaching.

My red rabbit's foot almost worked again.

Jim King appeared looking much fitter.

John Woessner and Marshall Medlin purchased their outfits they wore Saturday at Pimps R US.

Marshall was on the winning team for the third time and two years in a row. Is Marshall so good or does he inspire his team mates cause they know he is such a load? Zap made me do it!! HEHEHE.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all of you great SASBA members and your families.

RED HAT CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

We had such a good time. Twenty-four Red Hatters and two guests gathered at the beautifully decorated Carpenter House in downtown Plano last Friday to celebrate the Christmas season. The atmosphere was wonderful - the food and the service were excellent. Our hostess, Jan Colaluca, just did a magnificent job putting this event together and more than deserved the small gift we gave her for a job well done.

The evening started off with our Secret Sister gift exchange and reveal, followed by a wonderful meal. The buffet was as attractive as it was tasty. The pasta salad was a big hit and so were the "prunes" that turned out to be meatballs. It was so good that several ladies visited the buffet a second time, and the dessert table was "to die for". And, as if all that food wasn't enough, our hostess gifted each of us with an assortment of Christmas candy. I don't think anyone went away hungry. There was much laughter. Freda Cockrell and Helen Freehauf were having such a good time that had I not known better, I would have suspected there was something in that punch besides fruit juice. Jan Colaluca and Janice Gibbs introduced our guests, their daughters - Beth Colaluca Hooper and Dana Gibbs Phillips.

We "hatted" former Lavender Lady, Cindy McBride, and presented her with a beautiful red hat, designed and hand-made by our very own Peggy Brooks. Cindy is now an official Red Hat Lady. Congratulations Cindy!

The door prize was won by Freda Cockrell. We are so grateful to Ellen Wall who provided all our door prizes again this year and were so disappointed that she was unable to be there. Peggy Brooks was "finally" the winner of the Ladybug Award. Unfortunately, it was Sunday before your dingy Queenie was able to give it to her. I kept misplacing it. Your very own Queenie was surprised and delighted by the gift of a beautiful Red Hat Lamp. Really, ladies, you shouldn't have - but I love it, love it, love it! Thank you all very much. What a great bunch of ladies you are. Also, a big "thank you" to my "Personal Pages" - Debbie Ellison and Alene Hensley. They were so much help to me and saved me from much confusion.

After Pat Black, owner of the Carpenter House, gave us a brief history of the house, we adjourned to the Christmas Tree Room for our annual gift exchange. Amid much laughter, we finally got it RIGHT and no one LEFT without a gift. I love my angel! We rounded out the evening by singing Red Hat Christmas carols led by Renae Crouch. We may not have been good, but we were enthusiastic! Our photographers, Bettie Sands and Nanci Johnson recorded it all for posterity.

If you were not there, you were missed - and you missed a good time!

Santa Wears a Red Hat Too!

Queenie Jeanne
