DR AND HUFF R CHAMPS

Donald Robinson took it to the wall for the last five in a row to defeat Paul Coover for his first Ebonite Senior Tour Tournament victory at Tomball Lanes. Coover was second, Mike Lynch finished third, Bryce Ellison fourth, and Ron Benz was fifth. This was a star studded field in the senior division.

Charlie Hufford likes wood lanes and proved it by besting Super Star Fred Barnes the final match to win the Super Senior Division. Barnes was second, Richard Martin was third for his highest finish ever, Gary Dickinson fourth, and Jesse Jackson was fifth.

It was a very interesting condition, lots of strikes(everybody but Dave Dupont) and lots of spare misses.

There are two schedule changes, The San Angelo tournament will be cancelled and will be replaced by Mickey's Lanes in Tulsa the same week end. The Member-Member will be moved to the 6-7th of May.

SASBA's next event is a Member-Guest Tournament at Dynamic Lanes, Easter weekend, we have room for 64 teams only get your entry with you $320 entry fee in early to reserve your spot, see ya there!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Jamie's Tournament Notes

Juan Cortez rolled 126, low game of the tournament to win the dog of the week award.

Jesse Jackson bowled another 300 game with his Ebonite Big One, the third in the last two tournaments, and gets another $100 from Ebonite.

Stan Workman had a CP, there were too many RB's to mention even Richard Britton had a few.

Butch made a better score-keeper for Mike Lynch than he did as a bowler for himself.

Everybody was getting out of Richard Britton's way, even Bill Smith. Tip Bullock did not like lanes 23-24, Pete McCordic liked them.

David Addington liked it.

Randy Summers had another lily. Randy, Gordon has something for you.

Mike Kennerson called and his surgery went well and he thanks all of you for the nice posts on the message board.

WHAT HAPPENED AT TOMBALL

They arrived “hatless” and left wearing the most amazing creations. Who knew we had so many talented ladies. I’m just glad I wasn’t a judge - what a difficult decision to pick three winners from all the gorgeous hats put together in thirty minutes or less. I personally saw at least eight that should have been first place winners, but of course, there can be only one. The Red Hat Momma Award (first place) went to CeCe Garcia for her very elegant hat; Debbie Ellison and her buttons won the Most Original Hat Award (second place); and Patricia Paine who was inspired to add a yellow flower to her classic purple and red hat won the Gee I Really Tried Award (third place). If there had been a category for the most unusual hat, it would have been a toss up between Billie Jean Workman and Donna Smith who both decorated their hats to resemble Easter baskets - Billie Jean’s even sported an inflatable bunny! The big news of the day was that Peggy didn’t win even though she did considerable “kissing up” to the judges and performed a pole dance when she modeled her hat - I think the judges were the wrong sex for that ploy. Seriously, she did have a beautiful hat!

“Hats off” to our hostess, Barbara Redlinger, for planning and hosting this fun event at Ninfa’s Mexican Grill and Cantina; and a big “thank you” to her daughters, daughter-in-law, and granddaughter for bravely acting as judges. There were fifteen Red Hatters and four guests who enjoyed the Mexican food and the fellowship. We really appreciate Barbara’s effort and presented her with a small “thank-you” gift.

The door prize (a cheese board in the shape of a wine bottle and a deck of Red Hat playing cards) was won by our Webmistress, Gayle Currie, who, along with Debbie Ellison, also acted as our official photographer for the event. Can’t wait to see those pictures on the website.

Charleen Schneider took home the Ladybug Award for being the third person to RSVP.

Lots of Secret Sister Gifts got distributed and there were plenty of “oohs” and “ahs” as they were opened. It is so much fun being and having a Secret Sister. Of course, my Secret Sister is the best!

We made several important decisions at this event, but there is simply not enough space to include them in this article so I will be sending you all an email soon to fill you in on the details.

If you weren’t there, we missed you - and you missed a really good time!
