Rick Minier rolled a two hundred pin lead after nineteen games of the Ebonite Senior Tour Tournament at Plano Super Bowl in Plano, to snow the field. The last match was really for drill. Chuck Pierce had a fine tournament finishing second, T J Johnson hooked (HEHEHE) his way to third, Jerry Swank was fourth and Phil Bailey came in fifth.

We want to thank the 100

bowlers who entered the tournament. We have had new air conditioning ordered for three months. The units were finally delivered Friday morning, no time to hook them up. Apologies to those who got too hot. New member Jerry House cashed in his first try (with two hands on the ball). Randy Ham got his first cash. Jim Ensminger did not win. Mike Fleming came back from his worst performance ever to get a Sunday check.

Get your partners lined up for our member-guest tournament in Fort Worth. In three weeks.

Our next event is a Super Senior Tournament in Shreveport.

See ya there!!!!!!!!!!!!

Jamie's Tournament Notes

Norm Clark rolled 122 to win the dog of the week award for low game of the tournament.

Claude Thomas left the lily.

Three hundred games were rolled by Dwain Anderson, Bryce Ellison, Ron Depolo, Eric Schroll, Jerry Swank, and two by Michael Warren. Warren was awarded $200.00 for using the Big One from Ebonite.

We had a 75th birthday party for Stan . He is still bowling great!!!!!!!!!!!! This is an inspiration to all of us.

We do have a future.

John Denton has been working on his game and has moved far away from the DNF,s.

TJ thought his ball hooked, but no one saw it!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

IT WAS A NIGHT TO REMEMBER!

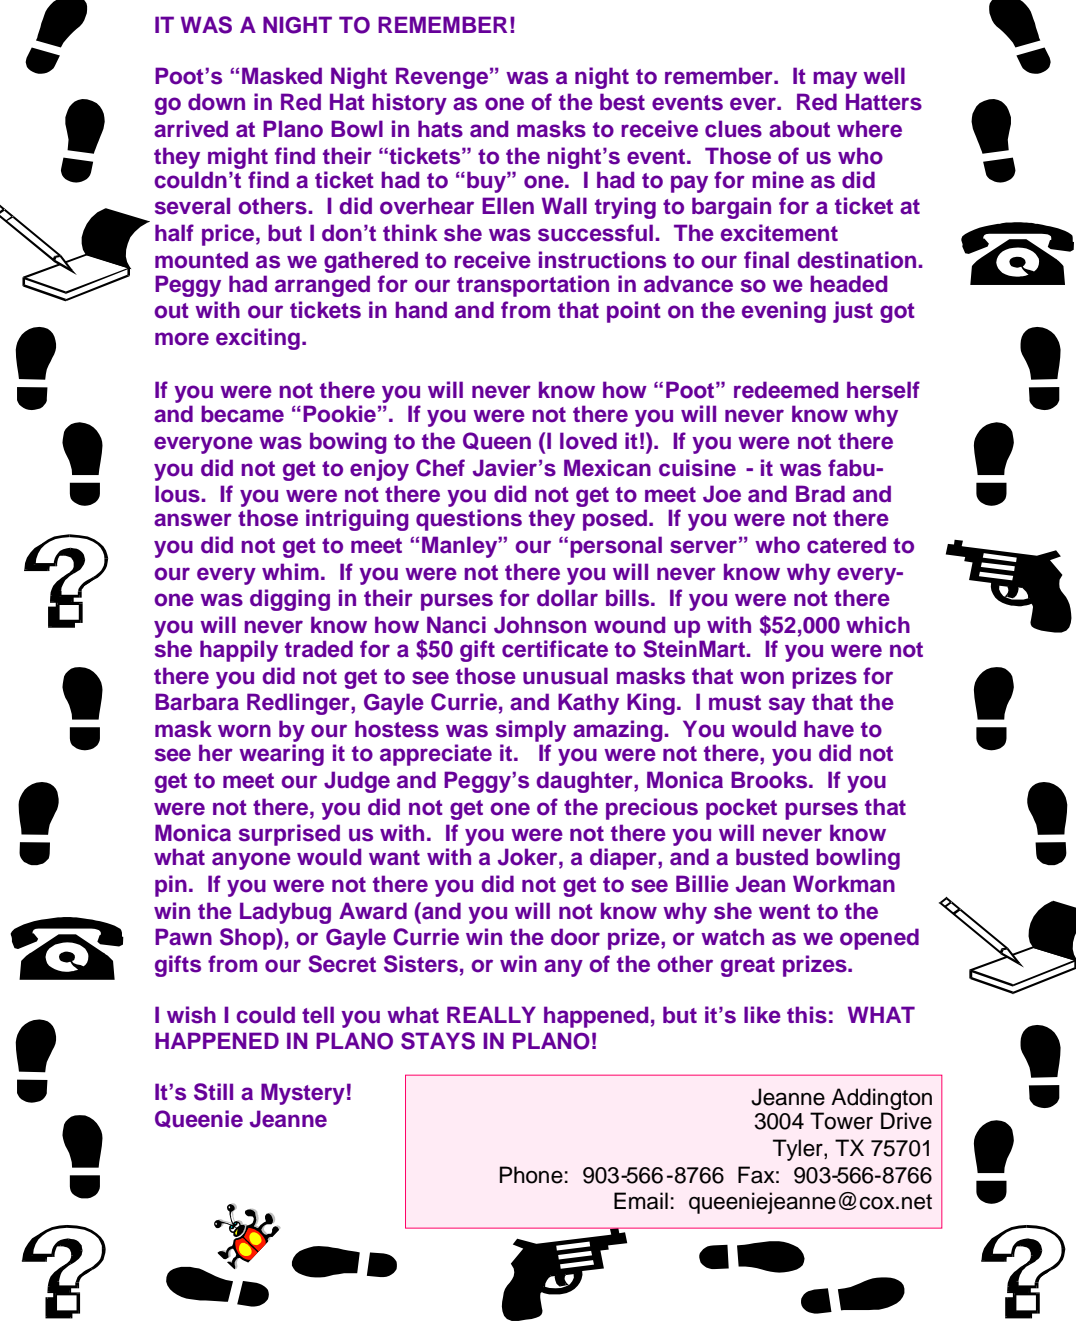

Poot's "Masked Night Revenge" was a night to remember. It may well go down in Red Hat history as one of the best events ever. Red Hatters arrived at Plano Bowl in hats and masks to receive clues about where they might find their "tickets" to the night's event. Those of us who couldn't find a ticket had to "buy" one. I had to pay for mine as did several others. I did overhear Ellen Wall trying to bargain for a ticket at half price, but I don't think she was successful. The excitement mounted as we gathered to receive instructions to our final destination. Peggy had arranged for our transportation in advance so we headed out with our tickets in hand and from that point on the evening just got more exciting.

If you were not there you will never know how "Poot" redeemed herself and became "Pookie". If you were not there you will never know why everyone was bowing to the Queen (I loved it!). If you were not there you did not get to enjoy Chef Javier's Mexican cuisine - it was fabulous. If you were not there you did not get to meet Joe and Brad and answer those intriguing questions they posed. If you were not there you did not get to meet "Manley" our "personal server" who catered to our every whim. If you were not there you will never know why everyone was digging in their purses for dollar bills. If you were not there you will never know how Nanci Johnson wound up with $52,000 which she happily traded for a $50 gift certificate to SteinMart. If you were not there you did not get to see those unusual masks that won prizes for Barbara Redlinger, Gayle Currie, and Kathy King. I must say that the mask worn by our hostess was simply amazing. You would have to see her wearing it to appreciate it. If you were not there, you did not get to meet our Judge and Peggy's daughter, Monica Brooks. If you were not there, you did not get one of the precious pocket purses that Monica surprised us with. If you were not there you will never know what anyone would want with a Joker, a diaper, and a busted bowling pin. If you were not there you did not get to see Billie Jean Workman win the Ladybug Award (and you will not know why she went to the Pawn Shop), or Gayle Currie win the door prize, or watch as we opened gifts from our Secret Sisters, or win any of the other great prizes.

I wish I could tell you what REALLY happened, but it's like this: WHAT HAPPENED IN PLANO STAYS IN PLANO!

It's Still a Mystery!
