Jim Stephens entered the finals at Copperfield Bowl in Houston in the Ebonite Senior Tour Tournament in second place. It did not take long to realize that he was going to be a force to reckon with. Stephens won seven matches and rolled a 299 game in the position round against second place Fred Barnes. Jim Paine qualified in the 16 and final spot. If he had ninety three pins higher in the qualifying he would have won the tournament. Paine had only one bad game, a 237. Great bowling Fluffy. Qualifying leader Gordon Stuntz finished fourth and Rick Minier was fifth. Thanks to Mike Nelson for having the bowl in superb shape for us.

Our next event is our annual Super Senior / Senior Doubles. You do not need a partner, for partners will be deter- mined by place of finish in the qualifying.

There will be a second chance $1000 added doubles for the non cashers.

Zap has won this event twice! See ya there!!!!

Jamie's Tournament Notes

Walter Johnson started out with 111 after fifteen minutes practice to win the dog of the week award for low game of the tournament.

Three hundreds were rolled by Gordon Stuntz, David Zappitelli, Bryce Ellison, Otto Miller, and Mike Cox.

We got to see Super Star Pete Treybig, and Legend Bill Lillard, they both looked great.

Mike Holland must have been practicing his spares, he improved greatly since his performance in Conroe.

David Addington liked it.

Ernest Ross got his first SASBA check.

Fat Albert will get to come back, he cashed.

Paul Houston made the finals, and could not knock the ten pin down.

LADIES, YOUR ATTENTION, PLEASE!

DO NOT FORGET! Debbie Ellison is hosting an event in Odessa this coming weekend. If you haven't already signed up and paid, contact me or Debbie, at once for details. This is going to be an absolutely, totally fun, "girl" party. The time is Friday, August 18. Meet at the bowling center at 1:15 p.m. We will caravan from there to Zucchi's for lunch (cost $17.50) then on to Chateau Boutique, Salon, Day Spa and Coffee Bar for a nail shaping/polish change and a latte or cappuccino (your choice) while we have our nails done courtesy of our hostess, Debbie, then back to the host hotel for a Swinging Diva Miniature Golf Tournament followed by Happy Hour (free to guests at the hotel). If that is not a totally decadent afternoon and evening, I don't know what is! Other services are available at the spa (at your expense) but you need to contact Debbie ASAP to set up an appointment. RSVP to me and get your check for $17.50 in the mail right away to Debbie. If you miss this one, you will just Hate yourself. Y'all come!

COMMENTS FROM COPPERFIELD

Take fourteen Red Hatters, three guests, put them in relaxing surroundings, serve them good food, mix with lively conversation and much laughter, and what do you have? A GREAT PARTY! And that's what we had at Copperfield. This was our fourth year to celebrate August at Hearthstone Country Club with our hostess, Patricia Paine, Mary and Chef Rufus. They treated us royally as usual and we had a wonderful time.

Our guest speaker, Jeanette James, a longtime friend of our hostess, Pat Paine, was a riot. Her tales of "husband hunting" were just too funny for words. We all laughed until our sides hurt (at least mine did). We also got to meet two more of Pat's longtime friends, Patsy Stoever and Barbara Fowler.

Of course the "Lady of the Hour" was our very own Alene Hensley. It was my great privilege to present Alene with her first Red Hat (designed especially for her by Peggy Brooks) and to officially declare her a "Red Hat Lady". She made a smashing one, too, decked out in all her new purple attire, and carrying her purple and red purse that she won as a door prize over a year ago (Ellen Wall take note) and had not been allowed to carry. We tried to make her day special and I think we succeeded. Alene's Secret Sister gifted her, via Peggy Brooks, with a beautiful bouquet of red roses and a great big high heeled slipper balloon to celebrate her birthday and to acknowledge her "hatting" ceremony. Alene also received a special gift from "Pinkie" Debbie Ellison, who was unable to attend. Web mistress, Gayle Currie, recorded it all for posterity with her camera. Be sure to check the pictures out on our website. Gayle will have them posted soon. And speaking of pictures, Pat displayed group pictures from our three previous Copperfield luncheons as well as a great picture of Granny Gayle. Now we all know what Gayle will look like if she ever gets old and decrepit.

Alene wasn't the only person receiving gifts. Several of our ladies received gifts from their secret sisters. Billie Jean Workman (who was sporting a beautiful diamond necklace in recognition of her years of devotion to Stan) won the Ladybug Award. The door prize went to Charlene Schneider. Our hostess, Patricia Paine, received a beautiful dish garden and our thanks for planning and hosting our event. In turn, Pat presented Jeanette James, our speaker, with a "thank you" gift for making us all laugh ourselves silly. And, Donna Smith gifted your very own Queenie with a bowling pin hand painted to resemble a Red Hat Lady. It is just beautiful and to make it doubly precious to me, it was signed by all my ladies who attended the luncheon. You will see me toting it around for awhile so that everyone can admire it and so that those of you who couldn't be at Copperfield can sign it too. Thank you, Donna, for such a thoughtful gift. I will treasure it.

It was so good to see Sue Ellison there with a smile on her face and looking just great. Freda Cockrell got Win off the golf course and into the bowling center so she could attend. CeCe told Rudy he "had to bowl". And Bettie Sands drove herself all the way from Bossier City to be there. No one wanted to miss Pat's Party!

If you missed it, you missed a really good time!
