Charlie Hufford and Jim Stephens won the Ebonite Senior Tour's Super Senior/Senior Doubles Tournament at Diamond Lanes in Odessa. They both qualified third to be paired together and proceeded to run away from the field on a demanding bowling condition. Fred Barnes and Bryce Ellison finished second, Gary Dickinson and Paul Coover were third, Gene Rivers and Jim King were fourth, and John Hawkins and Ron Leverich were fifth.

John Burns and the Diamond Lanes staff want to thank the 54 bowlers that traveled all of the way to west Texas to bowl, and hope that you all had a good time.

Our next event is our annual Champions and Non Champions

Tournaments. If you have not won a SASBA event you should not miss the Non Champs tournament. The Senior champs and the Super Senior Champs will have separate events. See ya there!

Jamie's Tournament Notes

Carl Hensley won the dog of the week award with 106 low game of the tournament.

Joe Tidwell rolled a 300 game.

The Red Hatters had a social event Friday night and had a fine time in the Hotel. It was a loud group. That was a great hotel with free breakfast, happy hour, and great beds.

The Rev and the Dude have been friends for years. It looks like the Dude has gained enough weight to look like twins. They both are so vain that they keep on wearing 38 pants that are about to burst at the seams. Both of them swear they will never buy 40's. I hope that there are no accidents.

Guy Morton made his first finals.

Second Chance Champs are Rich Black and Blane Adkins!

SNAIL MAIL

DEBBIE DOES 'DESSA

They came by car, they came by plane - Twelve Red Hatters and their guests descended on Odessa last Friday to have an amazingly good time and to help Debbie Ellison celebrate her birthday Red Hat fashion. It was so nice to welcome back guests, Judy Burns, wife of bowling center manager, John, and Betty Jo Kempf, Donna Smith's sister.

We began our celebration with lunch at Zucchi's, where Larry Burdette and his staff treated us royally as always. The food is so good! I managed to eat there three times during the weekend. Debbie gave all of us gift cards for a nail shaping and polish change as well as a latte or smoothie of our choice at Chateau Spa and Salon. What a hostess! Debbie received several gifts from Red Hatters and beautiful flowers from her Secret Sister. We topped off our delicious meal with birthday cake decorated in pink and lavender (thanks, Judy Burns, for all your help). I hope Debbie made a special wish when she blew out the candles.

We presented our hostess with a beautiful dish garden - thank you Barbara Redlinger for hauling it all the way from Spring. Kathy King won the door prize - an appropriately Italian one too - an olive oil cruet with four individual saucers. Thanks again, Ellen Wall. What would we do without our generous ladies. Peggy Brooks won the Ladybug Award for being the first person to RSVP.

Well we loaded up again and were off to Chateau Spa where not even a power failure could dampen our spirits (our bodies, yes - our spirits, no). Our ladies enjoyed a variety of services - manicures, pedicures, paraffin dips, massages, etc. - while sipping their cold drinks. Yours truly was the last one to finish because I indulged in both a manicure and a pedicure. After all, I am the Queen! Peggy received a very relaxing massage from Tommy (spelled with a "y"). Nanci Johnson and Gayle Currie were snapping pictures - hope they got one of that!

We ended our amazing day at the MCM Grande Hotel where Helen Freehauf (who swore she had never played golf) won the Swinging Diva Award with her hole-in-one. She needed a little help sighting the hole, but once she zoned in - bang it was in! Amazing!

Happy Hour was just that - happy! We talked, we laughed, we had the best of times. Our newly hatted Alene Hensley was having a ball, but she did keep saying, "Gee, it's not all about me this time!" She took that "Red Hat attitude" thing seriously. Gayle, Peggy and Alene displayed some great moves on the dance floor. Pat Paine made her Odessa debut and was looking great. CeCe left Rudy with the car and the luggage and hopped a plane to get there on time. Barbara Redlinger and hubby drove all night to arrive at four in the morning. Nanci Johnson brought our 2005 Red Hat Scrapbook for us to look at and enjoy. Nanci still needs pictures from a couple of events to complete it, but it is just great. Thanks for all your hard work, Nanci. Where two or more Red Hatters gather, a good time breaks out. If you weren't there for this one we missed you and you missed a really, really good time!

Thank you, Debbie Ellison!
