SASBA REDHATTERS

ELLEN WALL DAY!

Twelve SASBA Red Hatters gathered in Plano to celebrate ELLEN WALL DAY. It was an "unofficial" event so there was a distinct absence of red and purple, but plenty evidence of a good time.

We think we surprised Ellen because she did blush becomingly when I declared Saturday, December 2, to be "Ellen Wall Day". It was just our red-hat way of saying "thank you" to Ellen for supplying all those wonderful door prizes the past several years. We gifted Ellen with a small token of our appreciation and a tree-full of "thank you" notes. She also received gifts from her Secret Sister and several other Red Hatters. She even received one of the shopping totes that Alene Hensley made for our San Antonio Shopping Spree. Alene, Renae Crouch is jealous that she didn't get one.

Our "unofficial" hostess, Peggy Brooks, graciously offered us a private room for our get-together, provided cookies, coffee and tea for refreshment, and totally outdid herself with the decorations. Thank you, Peggy. A big "thank you" also goes to Gayle Currie who provided her own SPECIAL decorations for the event, and for being our unofficial event photographer. We all got a chance to look through our Red Hat Scrapbooks and they are wonderful. Thank you to those who worked so hard on them - Nanci Johnson, Cyrilla Carlisle, and Bettie Sands, as well as those who contributed individual pages.

Jan Colaluca was there to help me distract Ellen while Peggy's competent crew set everything up - even made Ellen go outside to the car to look at pictures of grandchildren. Way to go, Jan! We were happy to see Betty Britton (recovered from surgery) and Brenda Park. Donna Smith was there, smiling, as usual. Helen Freehauf and Debbie Cummins were in and out 'cause they were the Bracket Babes for the day. Peggy was running the tournament so she was in and out too, and Renae was helping her. Kathy King was bowling so we just cheered her on. And last, but not least, a BIG "thank you" to my sweet hubby, who wasn't bowling, but willing drove me two hours there and two hours back so that I could participate in this special event. I really liked that!

REMINDER - If you RSVP'd "yes" and haven't sent your $22-check to Jan Colaluca for the Christmas Party, please do so ASAP. Hope to see all of you at the Carpenter House on Friday, December 15 at 4 p.m. Don't forget your $20-gift for the Chinese Gift Grab.

Santa Wears a Red Hat Too!
