

Out On The Twig

Randy Summers Wins 2nd SASBA Title!

At All Star Lanes in Shreveport, LA, Randy Summers led the qualifying, then dropped as low as 5th after 3 games, but bounced back with back to back 260s and pulled away to win his 2nd title. John Hitzman bowled great to get 2nd, Bill Stayton got 3rd, Ben Edwards was 4th, and Rit Kriechbaum rounded out the top 5.

Hitzman, Wayne Dodson and Bob McGregor all held the lead for at least one game in the finals, but no one other than Randy could roll off consistently big games.

Thanks to Claude and Mike Thomas and Syd Thornton for being gracious hosts. The shot held up well and all styles were represented in the finals. The "Baby Gorilla" made it. Moon almost made it. Tip, Beavers, Hawkins, and King made it and lost it. There were no 300s, but David "I like that" Addington had a 299. Randy had the only 800.

We are in San Antonio at Bandera Bowl next week for member/guest tournament. Next month, we will have another Super Senior event in Odessa, TX....A member/guest doubles as well. They have new synthetic lanes and the scoring conditions have been great. Start lining up your partners now!

Jamie's & Jim's Notes

A lot of old friends, who we haven't seen in a while, showed up to bowl in Shreveport. There were appearances by Toby Yeager, Boyd Clark, Dewey Crow, Stan Workman, Tommy Crouch, David Addington, Jackie LeCroy, Henry Houston, and Jerry Marler. It was great to see all these guys out bowling again... and still throwin' the rock pretty good! There were also a few first time bowlers... a rarity in a Super Senior tournament. Beavers did a swan dive...receiving a 6.1 from the Russian judge. Toby had a CP. Sapp had a RB. Roger reinjured his arm. We hope he recovers soon. Boyd left the lily!.

Syd beat Claude...barely.
