MARK WILLIAMS WINS SQUEAKER IN LONGVIEW

Mark Williams barely made the top half Saturday rolling a 260 final game. Mark rolled another 260 the last game of qualifying to make the finals in eighth place. After seven games of the finals he was tied with Fred Barnes. Mark ended the final game with a 4-bagger forcing Fred to double in the tenth. Barnes didn't get the double to fall to finish third and allowing Williams to win the tournament. Roger West had trouble knocking down the corners. Roger eked out 279 the seventh match and 279 the eighth match to finish second. Sorry that your carry wasn't good Roger. Mark Estes was fourth and Mike McHugh was fifth.

Entries are coming in for the Foursome tournament in Plano. It takes the entry fee, $640 to reserve a team spot. Last year we turned six teams away. Please collect your team mates entry fees and send them in together.

The annual team tournament requires three entries in the past year. We need to have a good average for every entrant.

Our next tournament will be in Houston, see ya there!!!
