

SASBA at On The Twig

Tam Wasson wins 2nd SASBA title!

Rookie of the Year candidate, Tam Wasson further solidified his chances by winning his 2nd title at Copperfield Bowl in Houston, TX. Entering the final game, he led Rick Minier by 14 pins and Ron Ramicone was only 17 behind Tam. Both Rick and Tam started X/X//, while Ron started XX/XX. Ron spared a washout in the 6th and struck in the 7th. Rick started striking in the 6th and Tam started a string in the 7th. Ron struck in the 7th and left a stone 9 in the 8th. He followed with a strike in the 9th and could strike out for 236. Rick could strike out in the 9th and 10th to shut both of them out. He struck in the 9th, but a 4-7 in the 10th left the door open. On a four bagger, Tam then struck in the 10th. Ron left the 2-8 and spared it, meaning Tam had to have 9/ to win the tournament. He stuffed another strike and sealed his 2nd SASBA title. Ron passed Rick for 2nd. Dennis Scott jumped to 4th, and Ron Benz rounded out the top five.

Thanks to Mike Nelson, Bill Lillard and Pete Treybig for being great hosts! This was the 15th consecutive year for hosting a SASBA tourney...the longest run yet!

Five bowlers made their first finals...Ramicone, Scott, A.C. Adam, Mike Ferguson, and Jose Aragon.

Jim Paine showed no signs of recent illness as he bowled great.

300s were bowled by Mike Kenerson and Randy Ray. 800s were shot by Dennis Scott, Mike Holland and Steve Wright.

Next week, we will be in Shreveport for a regular singles and two weeks after that, we will be in Conroe for a regular singles.

Start lining up your partners for the Labor Day Blowout in Lafayette! There will be a singles for members and guests on Saturday and a regular member/guest doubles on Sunday and Monday. We will have a 2nd chance tourney on Monday for bowlers who don't make the doubles finals.

Jim's Notes

Johnny Santo left the lily! There were lots of "Smiley Face" pins worn in remembrance of Larry Reynolds. J.D. got a check Sunday after a phone "consultation" with Alice. Norm Richardson has a CP. Paul Houston put his eye out blowing out his thumbhole.
