Blankenship/Langford win Member/Guest in Shreveport!

Warren Blankenship and Billy Langford stayed close all day, then seized the lead in the penultimate match and entering the title match, only had to stay within 53 pins to survive.

They not only did that, they struck out to win the match and knocked Paul McCordic and Stefanie Nation down to 3rd place. Rick and Paul Minier moved up to 2nd. Gordon Stuntz and Tyler Corbin got 4th and Rich Goodrich and Scott Craddock rounded out the top five. Warren led all qualifiers on both sides. This was his first SASBA title in his first trip to the finals.

Thanks to Jo and Mike Thomas for hosting. The shot was fair on both sides and high scoring.

Our next tourney is the 60/70 doubles in Fort Worth at Cowtown Bowling Palace... followed immediately by the Annual Championship in Eules at AMF Eules. Half the field cashes in that one.

It's time to start lining up your partners for the member/guest doubles at Oil Bowl in Longview and for the mixed four-some at Plano Super Bowl. The four-some fills up every year, so get your entries in early. Entry fee is $760 per team.

Jim's Notes

Maury left the lily. Rusty had the only MM. There were no CPs. The all-senior team of Dave Lundgren and Dale Dumbleton made it and won more than half their matches. D.R. barely missed.

Phil Ballard was sighted and he was having fun!
