Out on The Twig

Jeff Clark wins first SASBA title!

Paul McCordic led the qualifying and first half of the finals, but Jeff Clark was winning all of his matches and assumed the lead with four to go. With two games to go, he had a huge lead, but big games by McCordic, Mark Williams and Robert Dunaway made a four-horse race of it in the position round. Mark started with a five bagger, but a big-4 split knocked him out of it. Dunaway was closest as McCordic struggled with carry. Jeff was staying clean with an early double. When Robert got up in the 10th, he could shut out Jeff with two more, but a stone 10 held him back. Paul struck out for 215 and forced Jeff to get X 9/ for a tie game...and the tournament title. He struck on the first ball, then almost left a 4-9. The 4 fell late and the spare gave Jeff his first SASBA title. Congrats Jeff.

Robert was 2nd, Paul 3rd, Mark 4th and Mike Rodgers in his first final got 5th place.

Thanks to the crew at Megaplay USA for their help. Their scoring system locked up Saturday night and they couldn't reach the service desk. We kept score by hand during A squad on Sunday, but they finally got a response and got it fixed before B squad started.

Our next tournament is a Super Senior singles on March 5-6 in Shreveport. On March 19-20, we'll be in San Antonio and the following week in Tulsa. It's our first trip to San Antonio in two years and first to Tulsa in over five years. Let's push for a big turnout for both. We have lots of members in these two areas and hopefully, we can make a big enough showing to get invited back.

Jim's Notes

Gary James made the finals from A squad. Hufford left the lily. Marcel had an MM. Kirk and Skipper both made it. Walter Goldston got his first check. 300s were shot by Thomas Young and Dunaway.

Jims Tip:

What's your grip pressure like? Hold the ball like you would hold a baby bird. Any more grip pressure than that is detrimental and could be caused by an ill fit.
