Out on The Twig

Pfeil, Newman, Lecroy repeat as trio champs!

The team of Gary Pfeil, Maury Newman and Joe LeCroy led the qualifying by a large margin and waited to see who they had to bowl for the title. Kirk Harper, Donald Robinson and Clarence McQueen qualified 4th, then in succession, defeated Pat Currie, Robbie Kaufmann, and Rudy Garcia, then Roger West, Mark Williams and Jim Ensminger, then Gene Rivers, Dave DuPont and Ron Benz to earn their spot in the title match. Pfeil and crew carried better and squeezed out the match 217 to 195.

It was the 15th title for Maury, 11th for Joe and 4th for Gary.

Thanks to Rusty Dickinson and crew for being great hosts. The shot was high scoring, but fair and held up both days.

One of the unique features of this format is that you can win with a 550 or lose with a 700. Both were in evidence in Eules. There were lots of matches coming down to the last shot by the anchor bowlers. As in the past, it proved to have compelling matches and lots of excitement.

Our next tournament is a trio event at Holiday Lanes in OKC. It's the same format, but each team must have a 50, a 60 and a 67 year old bowler. We are limited to 32 teams there and we already have 15, so get your team together early and get your entries in. The last spots will be determined by post-mark time and date.

The following week is the member/member doubles at Cowtown in Fort Worth. Two champs can't bowl together, unless one is a super senior. Memorial Day weekend, we'll be at Armadilla I in Pasadena, TX for a member/guest doubles.

Jim's Notes

Minier left so fast, he left his equipment in Eules! Freehauf bowled great! Mike and Butch carried Gary! Tip killed 'em! Coats won the lefties sidepot! Seibel whacked 'em!

Jims Tip:

How often do you practice spares? I urge all my students to have a session at least every six weeks of nothing but spare shots. Don't even put your strike ball on the rack and throw 100 spare shots.

Friday Sweeper Results

1.	Pete Thomas	569
2.	Mike Warren	556
3.	Bill Ferguson	528
4.	Les Burnham	526
5.	Roger West	525
