Gordon Stuntz wins 2nd SASBA title at Copperfield!

At Copperfield Bowl in Houston, SASBA president Gordon Stuntz led after Saturday, lost the lead Sunday morning to Paul Houston, then roared back in the finals to a commanding lead and won his 2nd SASBA title. Paul shot 812 Sunday morning and seemingly had the momentum to win, but ran into carry problems in the finals and finished 2nd. Mike McHugh used the tournament's only 300 to springboard to 3rd. Clarence McQueen bowled great to finish 4th and Jim King huffed and puffed his way to 5th.

Thanks to Mike Nelson, Pete Treybig and Bill Lillard for hosting again this year. This was our 17th straight year at Copperfield, the longest run for any host center.

Clyde Fravel and Red Shrum made their first finals. They will make many more. Two septuagenarians, Albert Waites and Jerry Beavers, made the finals again.

Our next tournament is in Shreveport, LA on August 13-14. It is the Claude Thomas Memorial and is a regular singles format. The following week is a regular singles at Mel's in Georgetown, TX.

Jim's Notes

There were too many MMs to mention, though MM didn't have any and made the finals. Roy Chesbro led the CP parade with four, three in one game. Mike Holland was 2nd. Eddy missed by one pin. Seibel made it by one pin and bowled great in the finals. Joe Vickrey cashed in his first tournament. Marcel got a check. Ed Campbell didn't bowl great but loved the Calcutta!

Jims Tip: You should reexamine your mental game as often as your physical game. Have you developed into a complainer? Is your self-talk negative or positive? Are you easily upset by minute events (one bathroom isn't working, snack bar isn't open, Pro Shop closed, etc.) It's practically impossible to win with a poor mental game, so fine tune it just like you try to fine tune the physical part of your game.
