Beavers/Francis win 70/60 Doubles at Cowtown!

Jerry Beavers and Dennis Francis grabbed the lead from Albert Waites/Jim King early in the finals and entering the last game, held a 73 pin lead. An early four-bagger sealed the deal and they won the match. Both Hall of Famers, it was Jerry's 8th title and Dennis' 12th. Albert/Jim held on for 2nd. Leo Plaia and Randy Summers got 3rd, Fred Van Haasen and Willie Wells got 4th and Tip Bull-ock and Roger West rounded out the top five. It was great to see new faces, even in a tournament where everyone is at least 60 years old.

Thanks to Jamie Brooks for being a great host. The shot was fair and held up well.

Our next tournament is a member/guest doubles in Shreveport on Oct. 15-16. The following week-end is the Annual Championship in Euless, TX. Halloween weekend, we will be in Baton Rouge, LA for a regular singles.

Jim's Notes

Bill Anderson shot the only 300. Ross is still trying to shoot my weight. Kirtley still throws it great. Dick Smith is back...and got a check. Skee/Bill thought the tournament started Sunday. Jim Paine celebrated his 75th birthday. O.D. will be 85 next week and still throws it good. Silverback whacked em'.

Jims Tip:

How do you target? At the arrows or dots only? At the breakpoint? Both? All of these work. But, if your vision won't allow you to target further down the lane, try closer. If you're righthanded and left-eye dominant, you might need to target farther down the lane than you are?
