Joe Lecroy wins thriller in Annual Championship!

Entering the last game, Mike Warren led Joe Lecroy by 38 pins, but Mark Williams, Clarence McQueen, Roger West and Tam Wasson were all close enough to win with a big game. Neither Mark nor Clarence could muster a double until the 6th frame and an early split took Tam out of it. Roger got a four-bagger, but would need sub-200 games by the leaders to win. Both Mike and Joe started X / XXX. Joe left a pocket 7-10 and Mike got two more. Joe came back from the split with two strikes and Mike hung a 10-pin. He then missed the spare and Joe was back in it. When Mike failed to strike in the 9th, it was in Joe's hands. He took it off the sheet with forty in the pit and had the Annual Championship title in his hands. Mark got 3rd and Roger moved up to 4th. Clarence rounded out the top five.

Thanks to Rusty Dickinson and crew for being great hosts. The shot was fair and held up well.

Sandy Soule made his first finals and finished 15th. Nice bowling Sandy. Jerry Beavers kept the "septuagenarian streak" alive. 300s were shot by Williams, Grady Creasie, T.J. Johnson, Mike McHugh, Leon Aragon, Randy Shewmake, and two in the finals by Lecroy.

Our next tournament is a regular singles at Metro Bowl in Baton Rouge followed by a singles at DelMar in Houston.

Jim's Notes

Estes stole my car keys. Lecroy, Robbie Kaufmann and Clarence all had 24 games over 200. The Baby Gorilla was the best handicapper. Pickett beat the Star King. There were some anticipated sightings of sidelined players: Mike Monticue, Dick Pfeil, Shawn "Slide" Rasti, Jamie Brooks and Max Gross. One unanticipated sighting was John Riley, who has lost half a person and looks great!

Jim's Tip: What do you think about going to the line? Slow pushaway, short 3rd step, don't kill it, follow-through...heard this all from the same bowler on the same shot. This is too many swing thoughts. Work on these in practice, so that they are automatic when you bowl. One at the start And one at the line should be the limit.
