T.J. Johnson wins 5th SASBA title!

T. J. Johnson grabbed the lead after two games of the finals and bowled steady the next five games to lead Pete Thomas by 65 pins entering the title match. T. J. settled the issue early as he ran off the front six on his way to shooting 248 and nailing down the title. Joe Lecroy started the tournament with 170-160 games before finding his stride and whacked 'em the rest of the way to grab 2nd. Dennis Francis bowled on A squad Sunday morning and shot 300 the last game to go around Pete. Robert Dunaway rounded out the top five.

Thanks to Mike Holland and crew for being gracious hosts. Del-Mar is one of our best stops...thanks largely to Mike's promotion of the tournament.

We had nine first-time bowlers and Joe Vickrey, Walter Goldston and Rick Moseng all made their first finals.

Next week is the Annual Mixed Four-some. The first weekend in December is the Age Bracket Tourney. Everyone is eligible to bowl in this one. You qualify and bowl match play finals in your age group (50-59, 60-69, 70 & over) until there is one survivor from each group. Those three bowlers then bowl one game for the title. There is a sweeper for those that don't make the finals with no additional entry fee.

Jim's Notes

Cheeseburger had an MM...on a 10-bagger. Moseng got 5 out of 6 strikes in the 10th frame. Rountree is back after finger surgery. Richard Martin bowled great! Mike Cox is back! Hitzman made it! Albert just keeps rolling along.

Jim's Tip: Do you involve your intended breakpoint in your targeting process? Many of us old-timers just look at a board or dot in the front of the lane. Some look at an area. Most pros and elite amateurs either look at the board down-lane they want their ball to start breaking on or they look from their breakpoint back to the arrows and draw an imaginary line between them...then try to hit that line. If you are struggling with targeting...give it a try.
