Francis, Busscher, Padilla, Padilla win Foursome at Plano!

The Missions team of Dennis Francis, Mark Busscher, Brenda Padilla and Steven Padilla qualified 5th, then ran the table in the stairstep final to win the Annual Mixed Foursome Tourney in Plano, TX. Bob McGregor, Jim Stephens, Stefanie Nation and Chris Johnson grabbed an early 20 pin lead after a split in the 2nd by the champs. However, the Missions ran off the next 8 strikes to nail down the title. Steve McBride, Gary James, Rita Heger and Jacob Heger got 3rd. Willie Jackson, Mike Moscato, Amanda Vermilyea and Eric Vermilyea got 4th and Doug Hayes, Danny Inocencio, Rachel Perez and Mike Shirley rounded out the top five.

It was Dennis Francis' 13th title and the first for Mark Busscher.

Thanks to Mark Grimes and staff for hosting.

This is one of our most popular tournaments. Again this year, we were full with 48 teams and three on the waiting list. No one on the waiting list got in...for the first time. Thanks to all the great ladies and guests who bowled with us. You guys and gals help make this tournament special.

Our next tournament is the Age Bracket Tourney at Cityview in Fort Worth, TX. This year, there will be three age groups instead of four in hopes of making the brackets more even in size...50s - 60s - 70s. Bowlers will stay in their age bracket for qualifying and match play. When there is one survivor from each age group, the three survivors will bowl one game for the title. All three are guaranteed at least $1000. For those that don't make the finals, there will be a sweeper on Sunday (no entry fee) with the high bowler from each group bowling one game for additional money. Last year, 1st was $450.

Jim's Notes

It was the first final for Inocencio and Moscato. 300s were shot by McGregor, Joe LeCroy, Donald Robinson, Chris Hayes, Doug Rice, Joe Paez, and Steve Frazetto. Prieto is walking to El Paso. Tam and Anita both left stone 7-8s.

Jim's Tip: Do you get caught not moving fast enough when the shot starts breaking down? This weekend, this was very evident as bowlers couldn't keep up with the breakdown. I tell all my students to always make sure your first move is one or two boards too much. Often as not, it won't be, but if it is, then the next shot should be easier to line up. If you can get lined up by the 3rd or 4th frame, you can still recover from an open and bowl a good game. If your moves are too small, you may never get lined up and a bad game can really set you back.

Friday Sweeper Results

1. John Woessner 530
2. Doug Hayes 512
3. Hank Jordan 503
4. Les Burnham 495
5. Don Robinson 491
